Asking What: No More Whys Wilma Marler, 2014-05 The story of being the victim of threats and related actions served as the predictor of my life journey My writing about my anger at the outcome of that event led a professor to suggest I change my major from sociology to journalism Although I did not heed that suggestion I am following that advice now I was trapped in my anger and it seemed every day there was a new inquiry of why this or why that In changing the question from why to what I discovered God's reason for my journey Questioning the reason for events elicits from God the response children are prone to get from parents because I said so or because I am your parent God is my Father and I am His child God received the same response that my parents received to that explanation I chose to be angry Once I learned that anger was my choice God could patiently and lovingly lead me to my ministry Two days after losing my sister to cancer I understood the lesson Being a minister is a title or label The what of my journey with God is to be available to minister to those individuals He places in my life Through obedience to God the what in my life became anger of motivation in my life It was anger that taught me to ask what and the lesson to be shared with others is start asking what
