Nouveau dictionnaire général anglais-français ... Alexander Spiers, 1891 Dictionnaire Anglais-français Jules Guiraud, 1926 Nationalizing France's Army Christopher J. Tozzi, 2016-05-30 Before the French Revolution tens of thousands of foreigners served in France's army. They included troops from not only all parts of Europe but also places as far away as Madagascar, West Africa, and New York City. Beginning in 1789, the French revolutionaries, driven by a new political ideology that placed the nation at the center of sovereignty, began aggressively purging the army of men they did not consider French, even if those troops supported the new regime. Such efforts proved much more difficult than the revolutionaries anticipated, however, owing to both their need for soldiers as France waged war against much of the rest of Europe and the difficulty of defining nationality cleanly at the dawn of the modern era. Napoleon later faced the same conundrums as he vacillated between policies favoring and rejecting foreigners from his army. It was not until the Bourbon Restoration when the modern French Foreign Legion appeared that the French state established an enduring policy on the place of foreigners within its armed forces. By telling the story of France's noncitizen soldiers, who included men born abroad as well as Jews and blacks whose citizenship rights were subject to contestation, Christopher Tozzi sheds new light on the roots of revolutionary France's inability to integrate its national community despite the inclusionary promise of French republicanism. Drawing on a range of original unpublished archival sources, Tozzi also highlights the linguistic, religious, cultural, and racial differences that France's experiments with noncitizen soldiers introduced to eighteenth and nineteenth century French society. Winner of the Walker Cowen Memorial Prize for an Outstanding Work of Scholarship in Eighteenth Century Studies.

Precarious Sociality, Ethics and Politics Audrey Evrard, 2022-05-15 A refreshing contribution to existing scholarship in English on contemporary French documentary cinema. Combines textured film analyses with rich contextual and conceptual readings. Makes a strong case for long form documentary cinema's critical and political force as a praxis of precarious sociality. Connects debates on documentary and film ethics with sociological, philosophical, and political conceptions of precarity, precariousness, and vulnerability.

Dossier Dopage Richard Stark, 1991 Foundational Fictions in South Australian History Carolyn Collins, Paul Sendziuk, 2018-10-15 In this lively provocative collection, some of Australia's leading historians and a Miles Franklin shortlisted historical novelist challenge established myths, narratives, and beautiful lies about South Australia's past. Some are unmasked as false stories that mask brutal realities like colonial violence, while others are revealed as simplistic versions of more complex truths. Each generation writes history that speaks to its own interests and concerns, write historians Paul Ashton and Anna Clark. In Foundational Fictions in South Australian History, which grew out of a series of public lectures at the University of Adelaide, an impressive range of contributors suggest different ways in which familiar narratives of South Australia can be interpreted. These essays tap into wider debates too about the nature and purpose of history, and the history wars first flamed by John Howard. Stuart Macintyre highlights

South Australia's central role in several national events Humphrey McQueen questions the origins and influence of the money behind South Australia's so-called progressive founding Lucy Treloar suggests historians can learn from novelists when it comes to understanding the past Steven Anderson argues that Don Dunstan's achievement in abolishing capital punishment owed much to a historical movement And Carolyn Collins highlights the role of anti-conscription group Save Our Sons SOS in not just ending the Vietnam War but broadening the appeal of the anti-war movement Encore Tricolore Nouvelle 1 Teacher's Book Sylvia Honnor, Heather Mascie-Taylor, 2000 This trusted and tested course retains many of the features that have made it so reliable for exam success but is totally up to date and relevant in both content and appearance Encore Tricolore Nouvelle Edition has been written to help your students achieve excellent results at all stages of their French learning Mémoires, Plaidoiries Et Documents International Court of Justice, 1948* Supplement to the Official Journal of the European Communities, 1996-02-22 Documents on British Foreign Policy, 1919-1939 Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1980 Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom have decided to publish the most important documents in the Foreign Office archives relating to British foreign policy between 1919 and 1939 in three series the 1st series covering from 1919-1930 the 2d from 1930-39 the 3d from Mar 1938 to the outbreak of the War Canadiana, 1991

The Bábí and Bahá'í Religions 1844-1944 Moojan Momen, 1981 Some contemporary Western accounts of the early Bábí and Bahá'í religions A History of Alexander the Great in World Culture Richard Stoneman, 2022-02-03 Alexander III of Macedon 356-323 BC has for over 2000 years been one of the best recognized names from antiquity He set about creating his own legend in his lifetime and subsequent writers and political actors developed it He acquired the surname Great by the Roman period and the Alexander Romance transmitted his legendary biography to every language of medieval Europe and the Middle East As well as an adventurer who sought the secret of immortality and discussed the purpose of life with the naked sages of India he became a model for military achievement as well as a religious prophet bringing Christianity in the Crusades and Islam in the Qur'an and beyond to the regions he conquered This innovative and fascinating volume explores these and many other facets of his reception in various cultures around the world right up to the present and his role in gay activism French Civil Liability in Comparative Perspective Jean-Sébastien Borghetti, Simon Whittaker, 2019-12-26 The French law of torts or of extra-contractual liability is widely seen as exceptional For long it was based on a mere five articles of the Civil Code of 1804 but on this foundation the courts and legal scholars have constructed liabilities for fault and strict liability of an extraordinary breadth and significance While the rest of the general law of obligations including contract in the Civil Code was reformed in 2016 by executive ordonnance this area was left aside being the subject in 2017 of a proposal by the French Government for the legislative reform of the law of civil liability a new legislative category to include both contractual and extra-contractual liability This work considers important aspects of this developing area of French law in a series of essays by French lawyers and comparative lawyers working in French law and other civil law systems In doing so it provides insight into the doctrinal thinking and judgments of French lawyers as well as the possible directions in which this area of the law may be developed in the future Canadian Periodical Index ,2000 Reports of the Supreme Court of Canada Canada.
