Learning in Secondary and College Classrooms is the latest iteration of the best selling landmark book in the field of adolescent literacy. The book contains strategies for boosting the reading independence of middle secondary and college students. Research conducted by NSF IES and OII has validated the model taught in Reading for Understanding demonstrating its effectiveness in raising students' reading achievement levels. The authors teach a clear and concise instructional framework for students at all learning levels from those with special learning needs to those taking honors and Advanced Placement courses. The book also includes a direct correlation to disciplinary literacy making the book an even more valuable resource in a wide range of classrooms. Explanation of the social and personal dimensions for building a foundation for engaged learning. Discussions of the value of setting aside dedicated class time for independent silent reading. With collaboration tips that go beyond the classroom and advice on building a cognitive reading toolbox. Reading for Understanding is an indispensable resource for teachers at the Grade 6 and up literacy coaches, reading teachers, community college instructors, and other school leaders.

More Tools for Teaching Content Literacy Janet Allen, 2008. Reading for Understanding Ruth Schoenbach, Cynthia Greenleaf, Lynn Murphy, 2012-06-15. As elegantly practical as it is theoretically elegant, it is a guided tour as one examines the tools of expert teachers as they engage students in a journey that is aptly dubbed Reading Apprenticeship: learning how to become a savvy strategic reader under the tutelage of thoughtful, caring, and demanding teachers. P. David Pearson, University of California Berkeley and founding editor of the Handbook of Reading Research. Reading for Understanding is a monumental achievement. It was a monumental achievement when it came out as a first edition in 1999, bringing years of rigorous reading research together in a framework for teaching that made sense in actual secondary school classrooms. Now just thirteen years later, Schoenbach and Greenleaf have several randomized clinical trials and multiple ongoing studies at their fingertips to demonstrate the effects of this approach for developing the reading and thinking of young people in our nation's middle and high school classrooms as well as in community college classrooms. Their careful work on developing disciplinary literacy among all students represents a passion for and commitment to supporting students and their teachers in reading for
