This important volume contains research articles about international accounting issues related to the countries of the Americas and the Far East. The volume comprises of 22 articles and is divided into five parts. The first part focuses on aspects of standard setting in certain countries including Australia, Japan, the United States, and China. The second part is about disclosure choices of companies. Studies of companies from Japan, Mexico, and Taiwan are represented. The third part is concerned with comparisons with US GAAP with special reference to comparisons between Japanese and US GAAP. Part four is about foreign currency translation by US multinationals specifically issues related to SFAS No 52. The final part is about geographic segment reporting by US multinationals.

International Accounting, General Issues and Classification Christopher Nobes, 1996. This volume contains 21 papers divided into three parts: introductory issues, the measurement and effects of diversity, and classification. The final part looks at the scope of and the reasons for studying international accounting. There are also some papers on the causes of international differences, in particular the effects of international influences on a country's accounting practices. The papers in the second part examine the degree of accounting difference internationally and the reactions to this of companies and users of financial statements. The third part looks at several attempts to put countries into groups by similarities and differences in accounting. Several of these papers refer critically to others in the group so that a corpus of knowledge in this field has been built up.
