Emerald had been poisoned with lead Dana could smell it on her and he wondered why Danburn hadn't. With Danburn being the king of the dragons he should have been able to smell it right off or at least Dana thought so anyway. With the woman's surly temper Dana should have left her there to suffer alone but he could smell his mate on her. Since Em was an emerald dragon he deduced that his mate must be another gem to compliment his diamond. Sapphire had been summoned with the rest of her sisters Ruby and Opal to Em's side. The young girl Carmine had powerful magic that could extract the lead from Em but she wasn't strong enough to get it all out on her own. The sisters would have to combine their magic with Carmine's or Em wouldn't survive. Sapphire knew instantly that Dana was her mate and she wasn't thrilled about it either. She and her sisters had been around for thousands of years why did a mate have to muddy the waters now. Dana wanted to take it slow. They had the rest of their lives to get to know each other. He wanted to court her and ease into the relationship. They were both immortal so time was on their side. Right Melville James had other ideas. If he couldn't have the emerald dragon he'd just take the sapphire. After all her mate hadn't claimed her yet and by dragon law that made her easy pickings.

Griffith Kathi S. Barton, 2018-08-18 18 Erotic Shapeshifter Romance fantasy romance paranormal fantasy The English Dragon 1 Danburn 2 Everette 3 Hanson 4 Dana 5 Griffith 6 Kip Coming Soon Griffith was a very old and powerful dragon and just the opposite of his twin James. The only thing they had in common was their looks they were identical. James although first born and immortal didn't inherit the dragon gene and had held that over Griff's head their entire lives. Anything Griff got James felt it should be his instead. Griff found his mate Lilac by chance. She had just barely escaped James's evil clutches and the moment she saw Griff she was terrified that they were one and the same. Lilac was a water faerie and daughter to the queen of faeries which made her queen of the water but that was a secret she would have to keep to herself. That knowledge in the wrong hands could spell disaster especially if James found out. Lilac was slow to trust but Griff made it difficult not to love him. And when Griff suddenly disappeared would he be able to forgive her for holding such a secret. Trust worked both ways and that was one huge secret.
