Eye of the Beholder Laura J. Snyder, 2015-03-02 The remarkable story of how an artist and a scientist in seventeenth century Holland transformed the way we see the world On a summer day in 1674 in the small Dutch city of Delft Antoni van Leeuwenhoek a cloth salesman local bureaucrat and self taught natural philosopher gazed through a tiny lens set into a brass holder and discovered a never before imagined world of microscopic life At the same time in a nearby attic the painter Johannes Vermeer was using another optical device a camera obscura to experiment with light and create the most luminous pictures ever beheld See for yourself was the clarion call of the 1600s Scientists peered at nature through microscopes and telescopes making the discoveries in astronomy physics chemistry and anatomy that ignited the Scientific Revolution Artists investigated nature with lenses mirrors and camera obscuras creating extraordinarily detailed paintings of flowers and insects and scenes filled with realistic effects of light shadow and color By extending the reach of sight the new optical instruments prompted the realization that there is more than meets the eye But they also raised questions about how we see and what it means to see In answering these questions scientists and artists in Delft changed how we perceive the world In Eye of the Beholder Laura J Snyder transports us to the streets inns and guildhalls of seventeenth century Holland where artists and scientists gathered and to their studios and laboratories where they mixed paints and prepared canvases ground and polished lenses examined and dissected insects and other animals and invented the modern notion of seeing With charm and narrative flair Snyder brings Vermeer and Van Leeuwenhoek and the men and women around them vividly to life The story of these two geniuses and the transformation they engendered shows us why we see the world and our place within it as we do today Eye of the Beholder was named A Best Art Book of the Year by Christie s and A Best Read of the Year by New
