Doing A Tefl Course In Dublin A Memoir:

The Experience of Expatriate English Language Teaching David B. Wilson, 2025-05-24 This is a unique applied linguistic study which demonstrates that the history of TEFLers is very different from the history of TEFL. Instead of studying theories of language learning and teaching it explores the experience of being a TEFLer through the ages using a wide range of fictional and fictive sources: novels, plays, biographies, memoirs, essays and poems. Part One considers the present and recent past through an analysis of 15 fictional works and five memoirs. Part Two is concerned with the experiences of some historical iconic figures from the world of TEFL beginning with the sixteenth century and ending with figures associated with the British Council and International House. Along the way one meets Victorian governesses, Berlitz teachers and literary figures from the inter-war Golden Age of travel. Interposed are some of the experiences of the author garnered during his long and varied career as an expatriate TEFLer.

Lit 21 - New Literary Genres in the Language Classroom Engelbert Thaler, 2019-06-11 Panta rhei The world is in motion. So is literary production. New literary genres like digital fiction, text talk, novels, fan fiction or illustrated novels to name a few have developed over the last 20 years. And TEFL has to reflect these new trends in literature production. These are some of the reasons why this book is dedicated to the use of post-millennial literary genres in English Language Teaching. As all edited volumes in the SELT Studies in English Language Teaching series, it follows a triple aim: 1. Linking TEFL with related academic disciplines; 2. Balancing TEFL research and classroom practice; 3. Combining theory, methodology and exemplary lessons. This triple aim is reflected in the three-part structure of this volume: Part A Theory, Part B Methodology, Part C Classroom with several concrete lesson plans.

To Travel Hopelessly English Teacher X, 2012-04-15 English Teacher X, a shadowy and legendary figure in the world of TEFL, follows up his debut book with this raw, lurid and vivid memoir of his first five years teaching English abroad. In 1995, after a year of aimless wandering, a young American backpacker answered an ad in a newspaper in Bangkok and inadvertently became English Teacher X, working in the next five years in 7 different cities in 5 different countries. From a tropical island paradise in Thailand to an industrial hellhole of Post-Soviet Russia, English Teacher X describes in violent imagery the life of an English teacher overseas, encountering dishonest and exploitative employers, degenerate colleagues, corrupt police, gold-hearted prostitutes and cold-hearted English groupies with drugs and alcohol for all while questing in vain for the Authentic Cultural Experience. English Teacher X's world serves as a cautionary tale for young people going overseas to teach or a titillating taste of the many perks of the darker side of English teaching.
