Humour Translation in the Age of Multimedia Margherita Dore, 2020-11-02 This volume seeks to investigate how humour translation has developed since the beginning of the 21st century focusing in particular on new ways of communication The authors drawn from a range of countries cultures and academic traditions address and debate how today's globalised communication media and new technologies are influencing and shaping the translation of humour Examining both how humour translation exploits new means of communication and how the processes of humour translation may be challenged and enhanced by technologies the chapters cover theoretical foundations and implications and methodological practices and challenges They include a description of current research or practice and comments on possible future developments The contributions interconnect around the issue of humour creation and translation in the 21st century which can truly be labelled as the age of multimedia Accessible and engaging this is essential reading for advanced students and researchers in Translation Studies and Humour Studies Humour in Self-Translation Margherita Dore,2022-10-15 This book explores an important aspect of human existence humor in self translation a virtually unexplored area of research in Humour Studies and Translation Studies Of the select group of international scholars contributing to this volume some examine literary texts from different perspectives sociological philosophical or post colonial while others explore texts in more extraneous fields such as standup comedy or language learning This book sheds light on how humour in self translation induces thoughts on social issues challenges stereotypes contributes to recast individuals in novel forms of identity and facilitates reflections on our own sense of humour This accessible and engaging volume is of interest to advanced students of Humour Studies and Translation Studies Film Authorship in Contemporary Transmedia Culture Wikanda Promkhuntong,2025-10-01 Film Authorship in Contemporary Transmedia Culture The Paratextual Lives of Asian Auteurs examines film authorship in the transmedia era whereby film directors have become public figures through a wide range of textual material and performative practices The book draws on the notion of paratext and its related term palimpsest to bring forth the idea of self reflexive authorship as a method of examining the mediated past present and afterlife of East Asian filmmakers The first part of the book pays attention to materials surrounding film festivals multi platform distribution and cinephile fan creative practices which have been created rewritten and shared to foster and problematize the reputations of selected filmmakers The second part examines alternative modes of self projections and creative productions that address the filmmakers sense of selves and relations with the industry and the public Across different chapters discourses surrounding film authorship and East Asian cinema are revisited and expanded to highlight its multiple histories and possible futures Relentless Progress Jack Zipes,2013-02-01 Can fairy tales subvert consumerism Can fantasy and children s literature counter the homogenizing influence of globalization Can storytellers retain their authenticity in the age of consumerism These are some of the critical questions raised by Jack Zipes the celebrated scholar of fairy tales and children s literature In this book Zipes argues that despite a dangerous reconfiguration of children as consumers in the civilizing process children s literature fairy tales and storytelling possess a uniquely powerful even fantastic capacity to resist the relentless progress of negative trends in culture He also argues that these tales and stories may lose their power if they are too diluted by commercialism and merchandising Stories have been used for centuries as a way to teach children and adults how to see the world as well as their place within it In Relentless Progress Zipes looks at the surprising ways that stories have influenced people within contemporary culture and vice versa Among the many topics explored here are the dumbing down of books for children the marketing of childhood the changing shape of feminist fairy tales and why American and British children aren't exposed to more non-western fairy tales. From picture books to graphic novels from children's films to video games from Grimm's fairy tales to the multimedia Harry Potter phenomenon Zipes demonstrates that while children's stories have changed greatly in recent years much about these stories have remained the same despite their contemporary high tech repackaging. Relentless Progress offers remarkable insight into why classic folklore and fairy tales should remain an important part of the lives of children in today's digital culture.
