

Concert Report

This assignment requires each student to attend a live, formal concert of western art music (other than an opera, ballet, or musical) and write a three- to four-page concert report (750-1000 words). I am happy to assist in your concert selection, preparation for listening, and offer my office hours to assist in the drafting and/or rewriting process.

The first draft of this report is due on October 30th. Upload the draft to Blackboard under "Assignments." Papers that are submitted on time will automatically receive a grade of A. Late papers are subject to lower grades.

After I post comments and suggestions to your draft, you will revise the paper according to the comments, suggestions, and corrections I've made to the draft. You are welcome to make an appointment for office hours to discuss your draft prior to revision. The final revision is due on November 20th. Upload the final revision to Blackboard under "Assignments."

The report must consist of three sections, all written in prose (no lists):

Introduction (approximately one page):

Write out all information in clear, concise sentences. Do not list or write incomplete sentences.

Identify: the concert's date, location, and time;
the performers (if orchestra, the name of orchestra and conductor's name);
the title of all pieces on program,
name of composers,
dates of composition, period (e.g. Renaissance, Baroque, or Romantic), and genres (e.g. Lied, concerto, chamber work) for each of the works performed on the program.

Indicate why you were drawn to this particular concert as opposed to other choices.

Review (one-and-a-half to two pages):

Please do not recount every piece in the performance, although you must list all pieces on the program in the introduction (see above). Focus on one or two works (or, if a large work such as a symphony, focus on only one or two movements) that made an impression on you.

Describe: the music you heard utilizing as much of the vocabulary learned in class as possible. Aim for the reader to "hear" the music through your description.

Evaluate the performance: Were you moved? If so, what occurred musically that stirred emotion in you? Again, utilize the vocabulary learned in class. Were other members of the audience moved? How did you know that they were, or were not, affected by the performance?
