Research Anthology on Feminist Studies and Gender Perceptions Management Association, Information Resources,2022-01-21 Global society has always been impacted by the perception of gender While gender roles may differ in certain cultures many cultures around the world have allowed for the disempowerment and objectification of women Women today still struggle for gender equality whether it be professionally socially or even legally To examine feminism thoroughly however thorough analysis must be conducted on all genders and perceptions The Research Anthology on Feminist Studies and Gender Perceptions explores the application of feminist theory and women empowerment in the 21st century and the role that gender plays in society This book analyzes media representation gender performativity and theory to present a comprehensive view of gender and society Covering topics such as masculinity women empowerment and gender equality this two volume comprehensive major reference work is an essential resource for sociologists community leaders human resource managers activists students and professors of higher education researchers and academicians Connecting Equity, Literacy, and Language Althier M. Lazar,Kaitlin K. Moran,Shoshanna Edwards-Alexander,2023 This book shows literacy professionals how to develop the dispositions and actions associated with advocacy focused teaching While portraits of culturally conscious literacy teachers are now readily available becoming such a teacher continues to be a challenge Drawing from 60 years of experience working with teacher candidates and teachers in the city of Philadelphia the authors argue that becoming an advocacy focused literacy teacher requires making moral commitments to students and developing professional competencies that fuse literacy language and equity studies Recognizing that educators can be overwhelmed trying to match the realities they face daily with the theory behind good practice Connecting Equity Literacy and Language packs a lot of big ideas into one readable concise book that is perfect for use in literacy methods courses The text includes definitions and examples of equity concepts relatable teacher vignettes and Pause and Reflect boxes to encourage reflection and classroom conversation Book Features Examines the central problems of students disconnection with school spirit murdering and the teacher education gap Looks at inequities that have become normalized in classrooms and schools through standardized testing literacy teaching routines and structures and deficit laced language about students and families Discusses literacies and languages as cultural practices and the need to be vigilant about the linguistic violence that occurs when students languages are delegitimized Describes critically and culturally centered teaching frameworks Provides vivid examples of advocacy focused teaching Reshaping Graduate Education Through Innovation and Experiential Learning Jenkins, Toby S.,2020-10-16 Discussions on the importance and impact of pedagogical practice on students as whole persons are often concentrated on the P 12 or undergraduate learning experience In higher education many institutions do an outstanding job of complicating the undergraduate classroom to include civic engagement community based learning education abroad social action and project based learning But what about the graduate classroom While there are indeed numerous graduate programs that push students to interact with strong meaningful difficult and sometimes harsh facts scholarship and ideologies the instructional methods have largely remained stagnant New methods of constructing deep and meaningful learning in graduate education is essential for the transformation and continued evolution of graduate school instruction Reshaping Graduate Education Through Innovation and Experiential Learning is a crucial reference book that offers practice based reflections on efforts to infuse creativity social action engaged learning or other creative interventions into the graduate classroom The book includes personal narratives that are grounded in pedagogical perspectives from graduate school instructors who share their experiences with innovative and transformative teaching practices The goal of the book is to encourage graduate school professors to engage social justice education as something to be experienced and practiced in their courses and not just as a concept to be studied As such the book covers topics such as self directed learning counseling and community mapping It is ideal for graduate level instructors in the field of education and other related social science areas as well as junior faculty as they establish a teaching practice or veteran faculty seeking creative transformation
