Love For & From My 4-Legged Son: How an ordinary golden retriever became an extraordinary dog Michael N. Marcus, 2017-04-13. This is the story of the amazing Hunter J. Marcus, my four-legged son. Hunter lived for 15 years and three months. He was a golden retriever, and the typical lifespan for a golden is 10-12 years, so he definitely had high mileage. His death was not sudden, violent, nor unexpected, but was nonetheless very sad. I could not be more miserable because of the loss. of a human child I never thought of Hunter as a pet and certainly not as a possession He was a housemate playmate child co conspirator fellow traveler and most of all my best buddy He soared like an eagle swam like a porpoise ate like a shark and often thought like a human Hunter understood dozens of English words and was very obedient when he chose to be Golden retrievers are very smart and very independent Hunter always knew exactly what he was supposed to do in any situation and sometimes he was willing to do what he was supposed to do We rewarded bad behavior because anything a dog does is cute This book is a memorial but it s fun not morbid The Complete Guide to Writing and Self-Publishing Online Helen Bolam,2020-07-13 Do you have a passion for writing but don t know what to do with it Do you dream of writing books For any would be writers the internet has given writers a new kind of freedom to do what they love These days anyone with a computer can access the internet and turn their knowledge thoughts and passion into reality without any barriers Teenagers and even moms have become rich blogging their own interests and passions Author s who once lay on the pile of rejects are now epublished and being offered traditional publishing deals You can join them In this eBook I m going to show you how to write an article in 30 mins how to start your own website research your blog posts thoroughly and how to write and publish your eBook Grab your copy today Do As I Say, Not As I Did Michael N.
