Cross Curricular Approaches To Language Education:

Cross-Curricular Approaches to Language Education Eleni Agathopoulou, Angeliki Psaltou-Joycey, Marina Mattheoudakis, 2015-02-05 Current applied linguistic research generally supports the adoption of interdisciplinary approaches in education with the objective of enhancing learners progress and teachers practices In this spirit this edited volume explores the issue of cross curricular learning and teaching from a wider perspective The twenty three papers collected here are categorised in four thematic units all of which however share a common feature they focus on interdisciplinary learning and promote the integration of knowledge and skills from various subject areas As such all the papers brought together in this volume thus emphasise the interconnectedness of knowledge and ideas in primary secondary and tertiary education The theme of Cross Curricular Teaching and Learning is related in this volume to Intercultural Education to Content and Language Integrated Learning and to Information and Communication Technology ICT The book will be of interest to scholars who are interested in relevant research based data and results and to educators who wish to update their knowledge about cross curricular teaching and improve their language teaching practices

Cross-Curricular Dimensions of Language Learning and Teaching Marek Krawiec, 2014-06-19 This volume discusses a variety of aspects of cross curricularity in language learning and teaching It highlights the multidimensional character of language classes conducted at different educational levels from pre school to the university level and discusses several important issues from a theoretical perspective providing certain practical solutions and implications to the enumerated problems The material of the book is divided into four parts essentially reflecting the main areas of interest here These parts deal with such notions as language learning and teaching media in foreign language didactics art and literature in language education and inter culturality and cross curricularity in language learning and teaching The book will be particularly useful to teacher practitioners and scholars interested in various forms of integrating the content of different school subjects in language education

New Contexts for Modern Language Learning Kim Brown, Margot Brown, 1996 This work shows how to broaden the content of the teaching programme beyond the purely transitional in ways which should be motivating and relevant to the pupil s own world It suggests ways that teachers can begin to develop cross curricular approaches and offer new activities topics and resources for bringing the real world into the classroom Case studies demonstrate the advantages of working and planning collaboratively with colleagues in other curriculum areas

Early Language Learning and Teacher Education Subhan Zein, Sue Garton, 2019-02-26 Language teacher education is widely identified as one of the most important areas that needs addressing in order to improve early language instruction yet research into teacher education for early language teachers remains relatively sparse This volume responds to this gap by compiling studies with diverse methodological tenets from a wide range of geographical and educational contexts around the world The volume aims to enhance understanding of early language teacher education as well as to address the need to prepare early language teachers and assist them in their professional development The chapters focus on the complexity of teacher learning innovations in mentoring and teacher supervision strategies in programme development and perceptions and knowledge and assessment in early language learning teacher education The volume offers comprehensive coverage of the field by addressing various aspects of teacher education in different languages The contributions highlight examples of research into current practice in the professional enhancement of early language learning teachers but with an emphasis on the implications for practitioners

Modern Languages Across the Curriculum Michael Grenfell, 2004-01-14 This book sets out the agenda for the future of modern language teaching in schools It aims to look beyond the dominant methods of second language teaching to a new approach emphasising the integration of language learning within the wider curriculum Through research and case studies from the UK France Spain Italy Germany Belgium and Finland the book shows how teachers and policy makers are increasingly moving towards a system where second languages are taught through other curriculum subjects rather than alongside them Key areas covered are recent trends and issues in the teaching and learning of modern foreign languages the rationale for integrating languages across the curriculum how cross curricular language teaching is developing across Europe practical materials and useful ideas for teachers and policy makers This timely book will interest all foreign language teachers particularly those on in service or higher level degree courses It will also be useful reading for student teachers and educators and policy makers internationally

Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom, 1992-1995 National Foundation For Educational Research, 1995 This latest volume of the Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom lists all the major research projects being undertaken in Britain during the latter months of 1992 the whole of 1993 and 1994 and the early months of 1995 Each entry provides names and addresses of the researchers a detailed abstract the source and amount of the grant where applicable the length of the project and details of published material about the research

Changing Places Kim Brown, Margot Brown, 1998 This text containing a range of topic materials for use by MFL teachers is a companion volume to Pathfinder 27 New Contexts for Modern Language Learning in which the authors showed how to broaden the content of the teaching programme beyond the merely transactional

Project Work, Cross-curricular Or Interdisciplinary Teaching and Learning - Storyline as an Approach to Effective Foreign Language Teaching Katja Krenicky, Katja Krenicky-Albert, 2007-08 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Pedagogy Didactics Literature Studies grade 1 0 University of Education Freiburg im Breisgau 22 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Project work cross curricular or interdisciplinary teaching and learning openplanned lessons experiential learning these are only a few of the whole range of existing terms expressing a trend of educational methodology postulated by theorists throughout many past decades Related to each other by the similar notion of learning by doing they intended to reform the antiquated style of traditional teaching and replace it by a methodology characterised by learner orientation and learner autonomy Due to the rapidly changing world and its demands
