Shimko,2005 Change and continuity in international history Contending perspectives on international politic War and human nature War and democracy Power politics Free trade The IMF global inequality and development Globalization and sovereignty International law The united nations and humanitarian intervention Nuclear proliferation International terrorism The global commons Logics of War Alex Weisiger,2013-03-19 Most wars between countries end quickly and at relatively low cost The few in which high intensity fighting continues for years bring about a disproportionate amount of death and suffering What separates these few unusually long and intense wars from the many conflicts that are far less destructive In Logics of War Alex Weisiger tests three explanations for a nation's decision to go to war and continue fighting regardless of the costs He combines sharp statistical analysis of interstate wars over the past two centuries with nine narrative case studies He examines both well known conflicts like World War II and the Persian Gulf War as well as unfamiliar ones such as the 1864 1870 Paraguayan War or the War of the Triple Alliance which proportionally caused more deaths than any other war in modern history When leaders go to war expecting easy victory events usually correct their misperceptions quickly and with fairly low casualties thereby setting the stage for a negotiated agreement A second explanation involves motives born of domestic politics as war becomes more intense however leaders are increasingly constrained in their ability to continue the fighting Particularly destructive wars instead arise from mistrust of an opponent's intentions Countries that launch preventive wars to forestall expected decline tend to have particularly ambitious war aims that they hold to even when fighting goes poorly Moreover in some cases their opponents interpret the preventive attack as evidence of a dispositional commitment to aggression resulting in the rejection of any form of negotiation and a demand for unconditional surrender Weisiger's treatment of a topic of central concern to scholars of major wars will also be read with great interest by military historians political psychologists and sociologists United States Political Science Documents ,1978 America Pathways to the Present ,1995 Causes of War Jack S. Levy,William R. Thompson,2011-09-15 Written by leading scholars in the field Causes of War provides the first comprehensive analysis of the leading theories relating to the origins of both interstate and civil wars Utilizes historical examples to illustrate individual theories throughout Includes an analysis of theories of civil wars as well as interstate wars one of the only texts to do both Written by two former International Studies Association Presidents US Department of State Dispatch ,1991

Annihilation Thomas Zeiler,2011 From 1937 to 1945 the world witnessed a succession of savage military policies innovations and actions on the field in the water and in the skies that resulted in the butchery of over fifty million people The military history of the Second World War involves heroism and evil effective and hopeless strategies bold and pointless operations calculation and luck politics and diplomacy and production and attrition This study incorporates recent scholarship on the military history of the Second World War to examine both chronologically and in a comprehensive geographic way the most destructive event in recorded human history Annihilation argues that World War II evolved into a war of annihilation a total war that engulfed militaries and civilians alike and spared no country either destruction or blame for the carnage The book questions the adopted intention of the good war thesis by wielding the strategy of annihilation on all sides as an architectural framework Readers will find global coverage linking together all theaters of the conflict in a narrative that advances from the beginning to end of the war This is the first study of the World War II that allows instructors to assign chapters of the book according to time periods or by place     The New York Times Index ,1993     Nelson's Perpetual Loose-leaf Encyclopædia John Huston Finley, William Peterson, Sir Edward Parrott, 1917     Britain Since 1930 Paul Flux, 2001     Historical Abstracts ,1971     Bucknell University Studies ,1951     Encyclopedia of World Problems and Human Potential Union of International Associations, 1994     Congressional Record United States.
