Chapter 1 Close Reading Questions

Directions: After (or while) you read the chapter, respond to the following questions. Each question is designed to make you think more deeply about this section of reading, promoting deeper understanding of the material.

_____ 1. After describing Finch's Landing as self-sufficient, the narrator notes how Simon Finch "would have regarded with impotent fury the disturbance between the North and the South" because it stripped everything from the family except for the land. Based on this context, choose the best interpretation of the phrase "Simon would have regarded with impotent fury the disturbance between the North and the South."

- A. Simon, a slave owner, was angry that he might have to free his slaves because he would be left to tend to his land alone.
- B. Simon pretended to be angry about the Civil War; in reality, he was more concerned about maintaining his empire.
- C. Simon felt angry about the Civil War, but since there was nothing he could do to influence its outcome, his outrage was powerless.

_____ 2. The narrator states: "The tradition of living on the land remained unbroken until well into the twentieth century, when my father, Atticus Finch, went to Montgomery to read law." The significance of this detail is:

- A. That Atticus was the first of the Finch men to establish a career away from the farm.
- B. That Atticus became the first member of the Finch family to become literate.
- C. That Atticus felt his heritage was not as important as the rest of his family members, particularly his sister, Alexandra.

English Language Arts, Grade 8 Module 2 PCG Education, 2015-10-29 Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6-12 to educators across the country. Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Challenging Common Core Language Arts Lessons Clg Of William And Mary/Ctr Gift Ed, 2021-09-03 This book from the Center for Gifted Education at William Mary provides gifted and advanced learners challenging activities to master and engage with the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts through four mini-units. Each mini-unit is packed with activities that enrich and extend grade-level ELA content for grade 8. Included texts have messages and characters that are developmentally suitable for students. Through higher-order reasoning questions, resulting discussions, and student-created products associated with these texts, gifted and advanced students' needs are met while still maintaining messages and characters to which students can relate. Students will be exposed to themes such as life is what you make it, don't judge a book by its cover, nature and vulnerability, and respect. Each theme was chosen with advanced eighth-grade students in mind and their emerging need to learn more about themselves, their world, and how to work through adversity to accomplish their goals.
