Graduate School of Business where they help some of the world's most hard-driving blazer-wearing business minds infuse more humor and levity into their work and lives. In Humor Seriously they draw on findings by behavioral scientists, world-class comedians, and inspiring business leaders to reveal how humor works and more important, how you can use more of it better. Aaker and Bagdonas unpack the theory and application of humor, what makes something funny, how to mine your life for material, and simple ways to identify and leverage your unique humor style. They show how to use humor to rebuild vital connections, appear more confident, competent, and authentic at work, and foster cultures where levity and creativity can thrive. President Dwight David Eisenhower once said, "A sense of humor is part of the art of leadership of getting along with people of getting things done." If Dwight David Eisenhower, the second least naturally funny president after Franklin Pierce, thought humor was necessary to win wars, build highways, and warn against the military-industrial complex, then you might consider learning it too.

Ethics in Comedy Steven A. Benko, 2020-10-16 All humans laugh. However, there is little agreement about what is appropriate to laugh at. While laughter can unite people by showing how they share values and perspectives, it also has the power to separate and divide. Humor that crosses the line can make people feel excluded and humiliated. This collection of new essays addresses possible ways that moral and ethical lines can be drawn around humor and laughter. What would a Kantian approach to humor look like? Do games create a safe space for profanity and offense? Contributors to this volume work to establish and explain guidelines for thinking about the moral questions that arise when humor and laughter intersect with medicine, gender, race, and politics. Drawing from the work of stand-up comedians, television shows, and ethicists, this volume asserts that we are never just joking.

Mr. Bud's Pot Smoking Games Mr. Bud, 2014-04-22 Smoking out is a well-loved, time-honored pastime for many. But sitting on the same couch with the same people watching the same stuff on TV can be a real buzzkill. With games ranging from the dice classic Zonk to creative twists on card and board games, Mr. Bud's Pot Smoking Games is packed with endless hours of high-times hijinks that effortlessly create a smoking-hot party. These green twists on game night make for hours of hilarity that take even a seasoned stoner back to the heady high of that first tender hit. The gauntlet of good times includes Strip Choker, where you've got to cough to get off; Twisted Twister, where the players get all tangled up in green; Hold It, in which a straight face and strong lungs win the night; Battlespliffs, where the classic contest of getting sunk gets skunked; and many more. Topping off the fun is an epic list of movie games to play while watching stoner classics like Half Baked, Harold and Kumar Go to White Castle, and Reefer Madness.
