Economic Exemplar 2013 Memo Grade11:

Cyprus and the Financial Crisis John Theodore, Jonathan Theodore, 2016-01-12 The 2012 2013 economic crisis in the Republic of Cyprus is commonly attributed to a number of factors including the exposure of Cypriot banks to over leveraged local property companies the knock on effect of the Greek government debt crisis and international credit rating agencies downgrading the Cypriot government's bond credit status What followed was unexpected and controversial a bailout on condition of a one time bank deposit levy on all uninsured deposits in the country's second largest bank the Cyprus Popular Bank and on the uninsured deposits of large proportion of the island's largest commercial bank the Bank of Cyprus Many have questioned the implications of Cyprus ties with the Russian financial system as well as the draconian and unprecedented bailout terms imposed on the Cypriot population by the Eurozone There has been little written from the Cypriot perspective on these events This book presents a study of the events surrounding the recent Cypriot Financial Crisis and its impact on the Eurozone It incorporates insights from leading protagonists in the Cypriot government and banking sectors and focuses on qualitative research to assess the events that formed the backdrop of the crisis The book analyzes the policies of many public and private institutions and presents the crisis alongside other Eurozone bailouts to compare and contextualize the ongoing issues Cyprus and the Financial Crisis also explains the political and historical backdrop of the events including the wider Cypriot experience since the 1974 invasion and the unravelling financial relationship between Cyprus Greece and Russia It incorporates the views of Cypriots from a wide and diverse spectrum and presents the resilience of the island in fighting back to beat forecasts for recovery helped by the Eldorado of gas finds off its southern shores

Benchmarking Working Europe 2013, 2013 Widening economic and social gaps among EU member states as well as among different groups and categories of citizens within society are not only placing in jeopardy the future of Social Europe but threatening to undermine also the whole project of European integration The post 2008 recession and debt crisis helped along by EU leaders obstinate clinging to the failing remedies of fiscal austerity have accelerated the disenchantment of millions of European citizens with the half century old project to build and consolidate a European Union This is one of the most striking conclusions of the ETUI's Benchmarking Working Europe report for 2013 Benchmarking Working Europe is one of the ETUI's regularly appearing flagship publications Issued annually since 2002 the report offers an alternative perspective on EU developments Using publicly accessible data it reveals what is actually going on behind the EU social and economic affairs headlines After last year's issue focused on growing inequality in Europe this year's Benchmarking Working Europe report will demonstrate by means of hard hitting graphs and cogent arguments that Europe is rather than converging actually drifting apart in numerous respects The Coming of New Industrial State Sergey Bodrunov, 2024-02-20 The book explores the effect of modern technological shifts on human society showing that technologies are undergoing accelerating qualitative changes that open up new opportunities for personal development and satisfaction of wants and simultaneously engender risks associated with growing opportunities of human interference with nature and technogenic stress on the environment Based on the study of cutting edge technologies and resulting socioeconomic shifts Bodrunov's analysis outlines the shape of the civilizational crisis we face It can only be overcome by founding a new industrial society of the second generation if we consider the new industrial state described by J K Galbraith as the first generation reliant on knowledge intensive material production and the gradual removal of humans from immediate material production

Vermin, Victims and Disease Angela Cassidy, 2019-09-25 This open access book provides the first critical history of the controversy over whether to cull wild badgers to control the spread of bovine tuberculosis bTB in British cattle This question has plagued several professional generations of politicians policymakers experts and campaigners since the early 1970s Questions of what is known who knows who cares who to trust and what to do about this complex problem have been the source of scientific policy and increasingly vociferous public debate ever since This book integrates contemporary history science and technology studies human animal relations and policy research to conduct a cross cutting analysis It explores the worldviews of those involved with animal health disease ecology and badger protection between the 1970s and 1990s before reintegrating them to investigate the recent public polarisation of the controversy Finally it asks how we might move beyond the current impasse

The Last Slave Ships John Harris, 2020-11-24 A stunning behind the curtain look into the last years of the illegal transatlantic slave trade in the United States Long after the transatlantic slave trade was officially outlawed in the early nineteenth century by every major slave trading nation merchants based in the United States were still sending hundreds of illegal slave ships from American ports to the African coast The key instigators were slave traders who moved to New York City after the shuttering of the massive illegal slave trade to Brazil in 1850 These traffickers were determined to make Lower Manhattan a key hub in the illegal slave trade to Cuba In conjunction with allies in Africa and Cuba they ensnared around two hundred thousand African men women and children during the 1850s and 1860s John Harris explores how the U S government went from ignoring and even abetting this illegal trade to helping to shut it down completely in 1867

Public Higher Education That Works Mitchel B. Wallerstein, 2024 Discover how one public higher education institution was able to succeed despite the many obstacles and challenges that it faced This is the story of how and why Baruch College of The City University of New York became a positive outlier overcoming serious financial constraints physical space limitations and other difficulties to be highly ranked academically and financially stable During a tumultuous time for public higher education Baruch has graduated tens of thousands of smart and striving individuals the majority of whom were the first in their family ever to attend college with little or no educational debt As the former president of the college Mitchel Wallerstein analyzes the lessons learned and he identifies the specific factors that explain Baruch's success He addresses the question of whether there is anything unique about Baruch's approach a secret sauce so to speak that accounts for its academic success and financial strength and he considers whether the Baruch model can be replicated by other public institutions Book Features Reviews the history of public higher education its development in the state of New York and the important role it has played in the economic development of the United States Presents a unique comparative analysis of 15 public higher education institutions in 6 states across the country comparing their strengths and standing in relation to one another and to Baruch College Explores the replicability and sustainability of the Baruch model in the context of other public higher education institutions across the country Reflects on the current and future challenges facing public higher education in the 21st century      Treasury Malcolm McKinnon, 2013-10-01 Commissioned by the Ministry for Culture and Heritage this interpretive history tackles New Zealand's most important department of state the Treasury Department The history of the complex interplay between New Zealand's government economy and people is detailed McKinnon shows the perennial jousting of officials with ministers the rise and fall of the accountants the rise of the economists and the impact of changes in the political scene and of events in the world economy      Economics Carden Madzokere, 2017
