

MUSC 100 – Music Appreciation

CONCERT ATTENDANCE REPORTS

Guidelines:

You are required to attend two (2) music concerts and write a report for each.

Before attending a concert, read the "Concert Goer's Guide" found under the Course Materials section.

Your two concerts must be of different genre. One of the concerts must be classical music. NDSU Challey School of Music offers a wide variety of performances throughout the semester. I would strongly suggest you to pay attention to their calendar of events: <http://www.ndsu.edu/performingarts>

Before writing your reports, read the "Concert Report Guide" found under the Course Materials section.

Electronic Submission:

Your reports must be typed, single spaced, and must contain 500-600 words (use the word count in your word processing software). Margins must be the standard, one (1) inch on all sides of the page.

Your report must be accompanied with a program from the concert with your name written on top of the program and also signed by either the main performer (if a recital) or by one of the directors/conductors of the concert (if a large instrumental or choral ensemble performance). You will need to scan your program and attach it to your report.

All reports must be emailed to the instructor.

Grading:

Each report is worth 100 points.

Deadline:

Your first report is due by October 26th at 8 a.m., but may be turned in at any point before this deadline as well.

Your second report is due by December 10th at 8 a.m., but may be turned in at any point before this deadline as well.
