Zero to One Peter Thiel, 2014

EVERY MOMENT IN BUSINESS HAPPENS ONLY ONCE The next Bill Gates will not build an operating system The next Larry Page or Sergey Brin won't make a search engine And the next Mark Zuckerberg won't create a social network If you are copying these guys you aren't learning from them It's easier to copy a model than to make something new doing what we already know how to do takes the world from 1 to n adding more of something familiar But every time we create something new we go from 0 to 1 The act of creation is singular as is the moment of creation and the result is something fresh and strange Zero to One is about how to build companies that create new things It draws on everything I've learned directly as a co-founder of PayPal and Palantir and then an investor in hundreds of startups including Facebook and SpaceX The single most powerful pattern I have noticed is that successful people find value in unexpected places and they do this by thinking about business from first principles instead of formulas Ask not what would Mark do Ask WHAT VALUABLE COMPANY IS NOBODY BUILDING
