

Guidelines for the Dialectical Journal

Dialectic means “the art or practice of arriving at the truth by using conversation involving question and answer.” The “dialectic” was the method Socrates used to teach his students how to be actively engaged in the struggle to obtain meaning from an unfamiliar and challenging work. A dialectical journal is a written conversation with yourself about a piece of literature that encourages the habit of reflective questioning. You will use a double-entry form to examine details of a passage and synthesize your understanding of the text.

Please note: There is to be NO collaboration with other students. Any assistance from the Internet, movies, or secondary sources such as Sparknotes or Cliff Notes will be viewed as cheating and will result in a zero. If you have questions about format, e-mail me!

Instructions:

You should then choose two passages from each remaining chapter of TKAM (Chapters 23-31) to record in the TEXT column of your journal.

Q: What passages should you write down?

- A. Quotes that relate to empathy
- A. Quotes that relate to Scout's coming-of-age
- A. You notice effective use of literary devices

In the RESPONSE column you should reflect upon and analyze the passages in 3-4+ sentences.

- Raise questions about the beliefs and values implied in the text
- Argue with or speak to the characters or author
- Make connections to any themes that are revealed to you
- Make connections among passages or sections of the work
- Examine the author's purpose: why did they use a certain literary device?

DO NOT MERELY SUMMARIZE THE PLOT.

Tips and Suggestions:

- ✓ Write down your thoughts, questions, insights, and ideas while you read or immediately after reading a chapter, so the information is fresh.
- ✓ As you take notes, you should regularly reread the previous pages of notes and comments
- ✓ First person is acceptable in the RESPONSE column.
- ✓ Remember that quotations do not have to be dialogue!
