Brave New World Dialectical Journal:

Dialectic of Enlightenment in the Anglosphere Howard Prosser, 2020-02-29 This book explores the reception of Max Horkheimer and Theodor W Adorno's Dialectic of Enlightenment. It examines a variety of perspectives on the text supplied by e.g. American critical theorists, British New Leftists, Transatlantic Cultural Studies scholars, Postmodernists, and those working in the current after theory moment from 1970 to 2010. It considers the works of the Frankfurt School, especially Horkheimer and Adorno, alongside the secondary literature on the subject. The main focus is on how various intellectual circles and trends have responded to the Dialectic, making scholarly discussions the primary sources. While the work is a history of the Dialectic of Enlightenment's Anglophone reception, it also reflects the post-1968 left's retreat to academia, which echoes the Frankfurt School's own stance of political resignation. 1984 -- a Brave New World? University of Western Australia. Annual Summer School, 1984

A Philosophy of Communication of Social Media Influencer Marketing Kati E. Sudnick, 2023-11-28 Social media influencer marketing emerged in Web 2.0 as a new form of celebrity endorsement in which the Internet famous create word of mouth marketing for brands and organizations on their personal social media pages, blurring the line between organic and sponsored content for their followers. This book explores social media influencer marketing through the lens of philosophy of communication with a praxis-centered approach. Kati E. Sudnick utilizes a multitude of theoretical touchstones, including Christopher Lasch's narcissistic culture, Marshall McLuhan's global village, Daniel Boorstin's human pseudo-event, Jacques Ellul's propaganda, and the interplay between charismatic leadership and parasocial relationships, in order to consider consequences surrounding Hannah Arendt's social condition, which appears in hyper-form within social media influencer marketing as a major integrated marketing communication tool. Sudnick applies these concepts to three major case studies surrounding Audible, BetterHelp, and Fyre Festival, drawing implications and conclusions for this integrated marketing communication tactic in an era entrenched within the banality of the social. Ultimately the author argues for a more aware and conscientious public when it comes to engaging with influencers online. Scholars of communication philosophy and media studies will find this book of particular interest. The Journal of Liberal Religion James Luther Adams, 1943 There's No Good News Martin Hirst, 2025-12-15 There's No Good News Journalism Crisis and Philosophy of Praxis is a searing critique of contemporary journalism and its complicity in sustaining capitalist hegemony. Drawing on a rich tapestry of political philosophy, media theory and historical analysis, the book reworks the classic propaganda model of Herman and Chomsky through a Marxist lens, introducing the dialectical potential of Gramscian common sense as a tool of critique and renewal. At its core, this book argues that journalism far from being a neutral arbiter of truth, functions as a powerful ideological apparatus manufacturing consent, distorting reality and reinforcing dominant class interests. Set against the backdrop of the Gaza conflict and the global crisis of capitalism, the book dissects the failures of Western media to report truthfully on war, politics and resistance. It exposes how propaganda failures of logic and the illusion of objectivity shape public discourse while journalists sometimes unwittingly serve as quotidian intellectuals of the ruling class. The text challenges the foundational myths of journalism, including the Fourth Estate and the marketplace of ideas, and critiques the normative philosophical frameworks that underpin journalistic practice. In a time when the moral algebra that animates freedom of speech is weaponised to silence dissent, the book interrogates the limits and contradictions of liberal democratic ideals. It explores how speech, protest and journalism are policed under the guise of combating extremism, revealing a chilling erosion of civil liberties. Through a dialectical and materialist approach, the book redefines truth as historically contingent, socially constructed and inseparable from class struggle. Drawing on Antonio Gramsci's philosophy of praxis, the text insists that truth must be more than an intellectual exercise; it must be a guide to action. Journalism reimagined through a materialist and dialectical lens becomes a tool for informing the public and empowering the oppressed. This vision of integral journalism demands that reporters commit to truth as a weapon in the struggle for justice. With philosophical rigour and political urgency, There's No Good News offers a bold vision for journalism beyond the confines of propaganda, towards a future where truth serves liberation, not power. South African Journal of Philosophy, 1992

New Technology and Education Anthony Edwards, 2012-01-26 New Technology and Education explores the benefits and dangers of the increasing use of technology in education, drawing on different cultural perspectives from across the globe to consider a variety of viewpoints. The reader is encouraged to engage with each facet of the debate, considering the philosophical, psychological and sociological implications of the relationship between technology and education. Recent debates and developments are considered, including: What is the relationship between creativity, education and new technology? Are subject boundaries blurred by the use of new technologies? How do we plan for technologies becoming redundant? Reflective exercises, interviews, chapter summaries and useful websites encourage and support student learning.
