Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 The Fiction of Albert Camus Moya Longstaffe, 2007 This book takes a fresh look at the novels and short stories of Albert Camus from his early attempt at a first novel La Mort heureuse to the largely autobiographical Le Premier homme unfinished at the time of his death It seeks to see the oeuvre as a totality coherent throughout and examines the linkages and transformations from one work to the next in the context of Camus's thought attitudes and topoi or themes The development of narrative techniques is examined ranging from laconism to lyricism from allegorism to realism from humour to biting satire The author traces the influence on Camus's thought of philosophers and thinkers as diverse as Nietzsche and the pre-Socratics on the one hand and St Augustine Pascal and Simone Weil on the other and considers the circularity of his work from the early preoccupation with the finality of death and the search for meaning to the return to the origin and source in Le Premier homme The enduring appeal of Camus's work is attributed to its humane openness and its challenges for our time Literary and Social Judgments William

Barroux, 1908 In the Bosom of the Father Swami Abhishiktananda, 2018-05-23 Swami Abhishiktananda was a French Benedictine monk who lived in India for more than two decades and strove to understand and live his Christian faith through the enlightening teachings of Hindu Advaita Vedanta Even as he remained a faithful Catholic monk he increasingly longed to live his life from the depths of both Christian and Hindu understandings of the ultimate Real In contrast to his many powerful prose works for which he is known Swami Abhishiktananda also employs free verse to explore exhort and expound reporting in poetry on his long journey of interreligious spiritual discovery with little desire to justify himself systematically In these poems a fervent and devoted Christian mystic plunges into the riches of the Hindu religious genius and brings forth ecstatic colorful and profound wisdom charged with an acute awareness of the non duality between the innermost self of the human being and the Absolute Reality These poems collected together for the first time search and hope with the dire honesty characteristic of the greatest of the world s mystics
