Borrowed Time An Aids Memoir English Edition:

Borrowed Time Paul Monette,1998 The first personal documentary about AIDS to be published Borrowed Time remains as vividly detailed as the best novel and as lucidly observed as the fiercest journalism Selected from Borrowed Time Paul Monette,1992 For the adult reader selections from the memoir on AIDS Homesickness Carlos Rojas,2015-04-06 Carlos Rojas focuses on the trope of homesickness in China discomfort caused not by a longing for home but by excessive proximity to it This inverse homesickness marks a process of movement away from the home conceived of as spaces associated with the nation family and individual body and gives rise to the possibility of long term health Scales on Censorship Pat R. Scales,2015-04-14 Pat Scales has been a passionate advocate for intellectual freedom long before she launched the Scales on Censorship column with School Library Journal in 2006 Decades of experience as a school librarian informs her ongoing work on these important and often volatile issues as did her tenure in leadership roles on the American Library Association s Intellectual Freedom Committee and at the Freedom To Read Foundation It also earned her a place among the inaugural list of Library Journal s Movers Shakers in 2002 Since her first column for SLJ she has been in an ongoing conversation of sorts with librarians teachers and parents a much needed conversation This collection of the wide ranging questions from readers and Scales informative answers are gathered in broad thematic groups to help readers explore the all too daily reality of confronting efforts to censor ban or otherwise limit open and ready access to materials in our schools and libraries They were all written in response to active book challenges or questions of intellectual freedom and library ethics These columns have a ripped from the headlines immediacy even as they reflect the core values and policies of librarianship They are organized by topic and each is framed with a brief new introductory essay Scales powerful reputation and practical ethically based solutions has made her a key spokesperson and support for librarians working under a censorship siege Her passionate unwavering voice provides valuable strategic and tactical approaches to censorship fine tuned insight into individual books often challenged and critical moral support for managing trying conversations Scales is focused throughout on fostering a culture that embraces and understands the importance of intellectual freedom and the tools to make it a reality every day in our libraries schools and communities Learn from her to build a background in the ethics involved in defending intellectual freedom and lean on her for insights into real life situations Scales on Censorship is an essential ally in the ongoing fight

Male Homosexuality in Literature ,1980 Public Library Catalog ,1994 The Oxford Guide to Contemporary Writing John Sturrock,1996 Keeping track of contemporary writing is by its nature difficult What are the recent developments in Chinese or Israeli fiction What has happened to poetry in Russia since the fall of Communism Are we even up to date with the best novels or plays of English speaking countries round the world Every year so much is published which we feel we should know about that there s a strong need for a volume to evaluate it and put us on the track of what is most worth reading This new Guide the only work of its kind to cover world literature of the last thirty years does just that in twenty eight lively and trenchant chapters it assesses the most important and interesting literary developments in all five continents Taking 1960 as its starting point and coming right up to date the book explores the recent writing of cultures as various as Australian and Spanish American French Japanese and Czech Indian and New Zealand and of course American English Irish Scottish and Welsh Each chapter discusses the literary and cultural contexts for authorship in its particular area throwing light on a great number of significant writers including household names such as Mishima Toni Morrison Derek Walcott Patrick White and Günter Grass but setting alongside them many others who may be less familiar but whose work is often just as well worth reading Combining hard information with intelligent opinion the Guide offers a discriminating and sometimes controversial view of a broad range of contemporary literatures Anyone interested in the state of world literature today will find the Oxford Guide to Contemporary Writing a fascinating and essential reference book

Epidemics in the Modern World Joann P. Krieg,1992 Epidemics and their effects on human populations have provided a literary theme extending from the Bible to Albert Camus's The Plague yet this theme is significantly absent from the literature of the United States Why In this groundbreaking study Joann P Krieg uncovers the hidden concerns in the American psyche concerning epidemic diseases as she traces evidence of specific fears peculiar to the development of a national self consciousness especially with regard to nature in the New World Beginning with the colonial era ministers politicians and writers have downplayed denied or only obliquely alluded to such public miseries as smallpox yellow fever cholera tuberculosis and now AIDS partly because of a fervent need to believe that only the old world of Europe is plague ridden and corrupt America by contrast is fresh and green its people ever young and healthy This attitude of denial affected even the greatest of American writers some of whom such as Charles Brockden Brown Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau were themselves victims of epidemical diseases Nathaniel Hawthorne Edgar Allan Poe and Walt Whitman broached the subject of epidemics though often indirectly or with ambivalence Later Henry James Willa Cather and Katherine Anne Porter brought psychological awareness to the portrayal of dilemmas raised when Americans confronted epidemic illness at a personal level Today AIDS challenges the hope of many Americans that geographical distance will provide immunity As Krieg demonstrates new literature by Larry Kramer Paul Monette and Susan Sontag speaks with increasing daring about the once taboo subject of epidemics and their impact on national myths as well as on individual lives BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Queer Cultures Deborah Carlin,2004 The essays and personal narratives in this anthology present various sometimes opposing points of view across the disciplines of philosophy literature history art film television web and print media political science anthropology economics sociology and psychology The Biology of Sexually Transmitted Diseases Gerald James Stine,1992 The Advocate ,1996-05 The Tales We Tell Barbara Lounsberry,1998-06-30 The 1990s have seen a renaissance in short fiction studies This book brings together the opinions theories and research of many of today s best known short story writers theorists and critics It includes essays by leading authors such as Joyce Carol Oates John Barth Robert Coover Leslie Marmon Silko Barry Hannah Gay Talese and W P Kinsella who reflect on the writing process The volume traces the origins of the short story back to Chaucer and follows the development of the form through today s hyper stories created interactively in cyberspace The broad scope of the book covers short stories from around the world including those from Africa Australia Great Britain Canada New Zealand and the United States People in the News, 1996 David Brownstone,Irene Franck,1996-05 Magill's Literary Annual 1993 Frank Northen Magill,1993 Reviews of significant fiction and nonfiction published in 1992 Provides coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year and that will stand up to the test of time Audio Video Review Digest ,1990 Book Review Digest ,1988
