Korean Table Taekyung Chung, Debra Samuels, 2014-02-18 ING_08 Review quote The World Cookbook for Students Jeanne Jacob, Michael Ashkenazi, 2006 The student body in the United States is ever more diverse and librarians have a major new resource to help them with the frequent requests from students who have assignments that include finding ethnic recipes This 5 volume cookbook set is directly related to the middle school and high school multicultural curricula It will be the source to turn to for multicultural immigration and foreign language units The World Cookbook for Students fills a demand for more and different recipes for all not just selected countries and also from ethnic groups Many librarians cling to an old Time Life set and this set aims to replace that Although there are many cookbooks out there and many recipes are available on the Internet only a few are geared to students and no in print sets or series match this scope and depth The volumes are organized alphabetically by country or group name Each entry includes a brief introduction to the land and people and their cuisine and then an overview of the foodstuffs typical dishes and styles of eating in simple bulleted lists Approximately 5 recipes are provided per country ethnic group of typical dishes and holiday fare for a total of 1 198 Each recipe is introduced and contextualized Other elements include boxed material to highlight such things as a regional staple thumbnail maps and illustrations an introduction to the set a bibliography with print and online resources and a set index in each volume
