Considering Pragma Dialectics:

Considering Pragma-Dialectics Peter Houtlosser, Agnes van Rees, 2014-04-04 Considering Pragma Dialectics honors the monumental contributions of one of the foremost international figures in current argumentation scholarship Frans van Eemeren The volume presents the research efforts of his colleagues and addresses how their work relates to the pragma dialectical theory of argumentation with which van Eemeren's name is so intimately connected This tribute serves to highlight the varied approaches to the study of argumentation and is destined to inspire researchers to advance scholarship in the field far into the future Replete with contributions from highly esteemed academics in argumentation study chapters in this volume address such topics as Pragma dialectic versus epistemic theories of arguing and arguments Pragma dialectics and self advocacy in physician patient interactions The pragma dialectical analysis of the ad hominem family Rhetoric dialectic and the functions of argument and The semantics of reasonableness As an exceptional volume and a fitting tribute this work will be of interest to all argumentation scholars considering the astute insights and scholarly legacy of Frans van Eemeren

Keeping in Touch With Pragma-Dialectics Eveline T. Feteris, Bart Garssen, A. Francisca Snoeck Henkemans, 2011-01-01 Keeping in touch with Pragma Dialectics is written to honor Frans van Eemeren and his work in the field of argumentation theory on the occasion of his retirement The volume contains 17 contributions from teams of authors consisting of a combination of a pragma dialectician and one or two researchers with a different background in the field of argumentation In this volume comparisons between the pragma dialectical approach and other approaches are made aspects of strategic maneuvering such as the use of presentational techniques adaptation to the audience and the selection of topics are dealt with and the influence of specific institutional contexts such as politics medicine and internet forums on strategic maneuvering are discussed

Pattern Recognition and Artificial Intelligence Fausto Pedro García Márquez, Alaa Ali Hameed, Akhtar Jamil, 2025-10-18 This book presents a diverse collection of cutting edge research from the 6th Mediterranean Conference on Pattern Recognition and Artificial Intelligence MedPRAI24 Covering a wide range of topics it explores the latest advancements in AI driven applications including machine learning for healthcare cybersecurity historical document analysis and digital media Readers will find studies on AI in social sciences literature and governance alongside technical innovations in image processing speech analysis and deep learning With interdisciplinary contributions spanning engineering humanities and political sciences this volume provides valuable insights into the evolving role of artificial intelligence across multiple domains

Argumentation across Communities of Practice Cornelia Ilie, Giuliana Garzone, 2017-11-15 Featuring multidisciplinary and transcultural investigations this volume showcases state of the art scholarship about the impact of argumentation based discourses and field specific argumentation practices in a wide range of communities of practice belonging to the media social legal and political spheres The investigations make use of integrative wide ranging theoretical perspectives and empirical research methodologies with a focus on argumentation strategies in real life environments both private and public and in constantly growing virtual environments This book brings together linguists argumentation scholars philosophers and communication specialists who convincingly show how interpersonal and or intergroup interactions shape challenge or change the argumentative practices of users what argumentation skills and strategies become critical and consequential how argumentative discourse contexts may stimulate or prevent critical reflection and debate and what are the wider implications at personal institutional and societal levels Reaching beyond the boundaries of linguistics and argumentation sciences this book should be a valuable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in the fields of pragmatic linguistics argumentation studies rhetoric discourse analysis political sciences and media studies

Dialogue and Rhetoric Edda Weigand, 2008-10-09 The volume deals with the relationship between dialogue and rhetoric The actual state of the art in dialogue analysis is characterized by a tendency to overcome the distinction between competence and performance and to combine components from both sides of the dichotomy in a way which includes rules as well as inferences The same is true of rhetoric the guidelines proposed here no longer state that rationality and persuasion are mutually exclusive but suggest that they interact in what might be called the mixed game The concept of a dialogic rhetoric thus poses the question of how to integrate the different voices Part I of the volume assembles several rhetorical paradigms which are applied to real life performance Part II on rhetoric in the mixed game contains a selection of papers which illustrate the interaction of various components The Round Table discussion in Part III brings proponents of different paradigms face to face with each other and shows how they justify their own positions and present arguments against rival paradigms

Contextualizing Pragma-Dialectics Frans H. van Eemeren, Wu Peng, 2017-12-12 Contextualizing Pragma Dialectics contains a selection of 18 article reporting on research conducted in the past decade in which the institutional context in which argumentative discourse takes place is systematically taken into account Some articles provide relevant theoretical backgrounds other articles make clear how the extended pragma dialectical theory can be used to analyse and evaluate argumentative discourse in specific institutional contexts Next to argumentative discourse in the legal domain and the medical context of health communication a great deal of attention is paid to various argumentative practices in the political domain or dealing with specific social issues A contribution on multimodal argumentation is also included All contributing authors are actively engaged in the International Learned Institute for Argumentation Studies ILIAS

The Routledge Pragmatics Encyclopedia Louise Cummings, 2010-04-05 Pragmatics has grown considerably in its relatively short history from its original disciplinary influences in philosophy and linguistics into a multidisciplinary field that encompasses a range of theoretical and empirical concerns The Routledge Pragmatics Encyclopedia captures the diversity of these intellectual interests in a comprehensive single volume edition The Routledge Pragmatics Encyclopedia covers concepts and theories that have traditionally been associated with pragmatics but also recent areas of development within the field scholars who have had a significant influence on pragmatics interdisciplinary exchanges between pragmatics and other areas of enquiry and all major research trends Extensive cross references between entries along with suggestions for further reading at the end of entries ensure that the interested reader can pursue additional study of chosen topics With over 200 entries written by leading academics from around the world The Routledge Pragmatics Encyclopedia captures the rich complexity of pragmatics in an accessible manner This reference will be relevant to students of pragmatics as well as to established scholars in the field Studies in Pragma-dialectics Frans Hendrik Eemeren,Robert Grootendorst,1994

Inference in Argumentation Eddo Rigotti,Sara Greco,2018-12-10 This book investigates the role of inference in argumentation considering how arguments support standpoints on the basis of different loci The authors propose and illustrate a model for the analysis of the standpoint argument connection called Argumentum Model of Topics AMT A prominent feature of the AMT is that it distinguishes within each and every single argumentation between an inferential procedural component on which the reasoning process is based and a material contextual component which anchors the argument in the interlocutors cultural and factual common ground The AMT explains how these components differ and how they are intertwined within each single argument This model is introduced in Part II of the book following a careful reconstruction of the enormously rich tradition of studies on inference in argumentation from the antiquity to contemporary authors without neglecting medieval and post medieval contributions The AMT is a contemporary model grounded in a dialogue with such tradition whose crucial aspects are illuminated in this book Argumentation and Health Sara Rubinelli,A. Francisca Snoeck Henkemans,2014-07-15 In recent years there has been a growing interest in the role of argumentation in the health care domain Argumentation and Health is a collection of essays by argumentation theorists reflecting on the way in which the institutional context of health care shapes the argumentative interaction The volume provides for the first time an overview of the most important recent developments and achievements of the study of argumentation in medical and public oriented health communication In Argumentation and Health attention is paid to argumentation in different forms of health communication such as the medical consultation direct to consumer drug advertising health brochures and health risk communication This book is of interest to argumentation theorists health communication scholars healthcare practitioners students of medicine and health related fields and all other researchers and practitioners interested in the function and characteristics of argumentation in health communication Originally published in Journal of Argumentation in Context Vol 1 1 2012 Applied Psycholinguistics.
