Constantinople The Last Great Siege English Edition:

Constantinople Roger Crowley, 2006 In the spring of 1453 the Ottoman Turks advanced on Constantinople in pursuit of an ancient Islamic dream capturing the thousand year old capital of Christian Byzantium During the siege that followed a small band of badly organised defenders outnumbered ten to one confronted the might of the Ottoman army in a bitter contest fought on land sea and underground and directed by two remarkable men Sultan Mehmet II and the Emperor Constantine XI In the fevered religious atmosphere heightened by the first massed use of artillery bombardment both sides feared that the end of the world was near The Rhetoric of Numbers in Gibbon's History F. P. Lock, 2012-09-28

Gibbon aspired to combine the critical analysis of the eighteenth century philosophe with the older traditions of the humanist and scholarly historian His different uses of numbers to inform and to persuade illustrate his remarkable fusion of these approaches This book the first to be devoted to a historian's use of numbers shows how carefully Gibbon interrogated and deployed the numerical evidence in his sources to create a more accurate historical narrative to demonstrate his own reliability and candor as a historian and to convince readers of the validity of his interpretations of characters and events

Masters of Warfare Eric G. L. Pinzelli, 2022-12-02 In Masters of Warfare Eric G L Pinzelli presents a selection of fifty commanders whose military achievements skill or historical impact he believes to be underrated by modern opinion He specifically does not include the household names the Gods of War as he calls them such as Alexander Julius Caesar Wellington Napoleon Rommel or Patton that have been covered in countless biographies Those chosen come from every period of recorded military history from the sixth century BC to the Vietnam War The selection rectifies the European US bias of many such surveys with Asian entries such as Bai Qi Chinese Attila Hunnic Subotai Mongol Ieyasu Tokugawa Japanese and V Nguyen Giap Vietnamese Naval commanders are also represented by the likes of Khayr al Din Barbarossa Francis Drake and Michiel de Ruyter These 50 Masters of War are presented in a chronological order easy to follow with a concise overview of their life and career Altogether they present a fascinating survey of the developments and continuities in the art of command but most importantly their contribution to the evolution of weaponry tactic and strategy through the ages
