Opposing Colonialism, Antisemitism, and Turbo-Nationalism Marina Gržinić, Jovita Pristovšek, 2019-11-25 This volume gathers together reflections on racism and nationalism empowerment and futurity It focuses on collective amnesia in regards to traumatic events of the European past and the ways in which memory and history are presented for the future The essays cover and oppose the seemingly disparate genocides committed during Belgian colonialism Austrian antisemitism and turbo nationalism in Republika Srpska Bosnia and Herzegovina implying by no means a homogenization of the experiences What connects these historical situations is the fact that despite available documents to this very day nation states are built on practices of oblivion regarding their past This volume is indispensable for theoreticians philosophers and historians as well as the general public It expresses the demand to critically question our inherited knowledge and to rethink the past for a new future of conviviality

The Death Penalty in Africa Aimé Muyoboke Karimunda, 2016-03-16 Human development is not simply about wealth and economic well being it is also dependent upon shared values that cherish the sanctity of human life Using comparative methods archival research and quantitative findings this book explores the historical and cultural background of the death penalty in Africa analysing the law and practice of the death penalty under European and Asian laws in Africa before independence Showing progressive attitudes to punishment rooted in both traditional and modern concepts of human dignity Aim Muyoboke Karimunda assesses the ground on which the death penalty is retained today Providing a full and balanced appraisal of the arguments the book presents a clear and compelling case for the total abolition of the death penalty throughout Africa This book is essential reading for human rights lawyers legal anthropologists historians political analysts and anyone else interested in promoting democracy and the protection of fundamental human rights in Africa

Church and Revolution in Rwanda Ian Linden, Jane Linden, 1977 Colonial Legacies Gabriella Nugent, 2021-12-15 In Colonial Legacies Gabriella Nugent examines a generation of contemporary artists born or based in the Congo whose lens based art attends to the afterlives and mutations of Belgian colonialism in postcolonial Congo Focusing on three artists and one artist collective Nugent analyses artworks produced by Sammy Baloji Mich le Magma Georges Senga and Kongo Astronauts each of whom offers a different perspective onto this history gleaned from their own experiences In their photography and video art these artists rework existent images and redress archival absences making visible people and events occluded from dominant narratives Their artworks are shown to offer a re reading of the colonial and immediate post independence past blurring the lines of historical and speculative knowledge documentary and fiction Nugent demonstrates how their practices create a new type of visual record for the future one that attests to the ramifications of colonialism across time

Memories of Post-Imperial Nations Dietmar Rothermund, 2015-05-14 Memories of Post Imperial Nations presents the first transnational comparison of Great Britain the Netherlands Belgium France Portugal Italy and Japan all of whom lost or decolonized their overseas empires after 1945 Since the empires of the world crumbled the post imperial nations have been struggling to come to terms with the present and as recall sets in wars of memory have arisen leading to a process of collective editing As these nations rebuild themselves they shed old characteristics and acquire new ones looking at new orientations This book brings together varying perspectives with historians and political scientists of these nations attempting to bind memory and its experience of different post imperial nations

The Political Economy of the Great Lakes Region in Africa Stefaan Marysse,2005-10-21 This book examines the international factors such as enforced democracy and globalization that have affected the Great Lakes region of Africa The horrendous consequences in terms of violence and human suffering of the events in this area have been exhibited in the media however news coverage after 1994 was at times unreliable This book takes a look at life since then adopting an independent and on occasion controversial perspective

Remembering Genocides in Central Africa Rene Lemarchand,2021-01-04 Scene of one of the biggest genocides of the last century Rwanda has become a household word yet bitter disagreements persist as to its causes and consequences Through a blend of personal memories and historical analysis and informed by a lifelong experience of research in Central Africa the author challenges conventional wisdom and suggests a new perspective for making sense of the appalling brutality that has accompanied the region s post independence trajectories All four states adjacent to Rwanda are inhabited by Hutu and Tutsi and thus contained in germ the potential for ethnic conflict but only in Burundi did this potential reach genocidal proportions when in 1972 in response to a local insurrection at least 200 000 Hutu civilians were killed by a predominantly Tutsi army By widening his analytic lens the author shows the critical importance of the Burundi bloodshed to an understanding of the roots of the Rwanda genocide and in later years the significance of the mass murder of Hutu civilians by Kagame s Tutsi army not just in Rwanda but in the Congo The regional dimension of ethnic conflict traceable to Belgian engineered Hutu revolution in Rwanda in 1959 three years before its independence is the principal missing piece in the genocidal puzzle of the Great Lakes region of central Africa But this is by no means the only one Reassembling the missing pieces within and outside Rwanda is not the least of the merits of this highly readable reassessment of a widely misunderstood human tragedy

The Lumumba Plot Stuart A. Reid,2024-11-05 The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A spellbinding work of history that reads like a Cold War spy thriller about the U S sanctioned plot to assassinate the democratically elected leader of the newly independent Congo A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR The New Yorker The Economist Financial Times This is one of the best books I have read in years gripping full of colorful characters and strange plot twists Fareed Zakaria CNN host It was supposed to be a moment of great optimism a cause for jubilation The Congo was at last being set free from Belgium one of seventeen countries to gain independence in 1960 from ruling European powers At the helm as prime minister was charismatic nationalist Patrice Lumumba Just days after the handover however the Congo's new army mutinied Belgian forces intervened and Lumumba turned to the United Nations for help in saving his newborn nation from what the press was already calling the Congo crisis Dag Hammarskjöld the tidy Swede serving as UN secretary general quickly arranged the organization's biggest peacekeeping mission in history But chaos was still spreading Frustrated with the fecklessness of the UN and spurned by the United States Lumumba then approached the Soviets for help an appeal that set off alarm bells at the CIA To forestall the spread of Communism in Africa the CIA sent word to its station chief in the Congo Larry Devlin Lumumba had to go Within a year everything would unravel The CIA plot to murder Lumumba wouldizzle out but he would be deposed in a CIA backed coup transferred to enemy territory in a CIA approved operation and shot dead by Congolese assassins Hammarskjöld too would die in a mysterious plane crash en route to negotiate a cease fire with the Congo's rebellious southeast And a young ambitious military officer named Joseph Mobutu who had once sworn fealty to Lumumba would seize power with U.S. help and misrule the country for more than three decades For the Congolese people the events of 1960-61 represented the opening chapter of a long horror story For the U.S. government however they provided a playbook for future interventions

Routledge Handbook of Francophone Africa Tony Chafer, Margaret A. Majumdar, 2023-11-02 The Routledge Handbook of Francophone Africa brings together a multidisciplinary team of international experts to reflect on the history politics societies and cultures of French speaking parts of Africa Consisting of approximately 35% of Africa's territory Francophone Africa is a shifting concept with its roots in French and Belgian colonial rule This handbook develops and problematizes the term with thematic sections covering Colonial and post colonial ties between France and sub Saharan Africa Belgium Belgian colonialism and Africa The Maghreb African Francophones in France Francophone African literature and film Francophone and Anglophone Africa Beyond national boundaries and colonial partners The chapters demonstrate the evolution of Francophone Africa into a multi dimensional construct with both a material and an imagined reality Materially it defines a regional territorial space that coexists with other conceptualisations of African space and borders Conceptually Francophone Africa constitutes a shared linguistic and cultural space within which collective memories are shared not least through their connection to the French imperial imagination Overall the Handbook demonstrates that as global power structures and relations evolve African agency is increasingly assertive in shaping French African relations Bringing this important debate together into a single volume this Handbook will be an essential resource for students and scholars interested in Francophone Africa
