Construction Litigation Robert F. Cushman, Kenneth M. Cushman, Stephen B. Cook, 1995-12-31 Written by a team of authors who are not only experienced in resolving construction disputes but also are known and respected for their expertise in specific areas commonly encountered in construction litigation Construction Litigation Representing the Owner is an ideal reference and resource Intended primarily to assist attorneys this book also provides a useful desk reference to anyone whose activities touch a long term contract matters and provides a solid frame work for understanding how actions may affect this important part of operations Standard Form Construction Contract Documents ,2008 The Architect's Handbook of Professional Practice Joseph A. Demkin, American Institute of Architects, 2008-03-24 This updated resource covers all aspects of architectural practice featuring new material of sustainable design managing multiple offices lifelong learning mentoring and team building revised content on programming project management construction contract administration risk management and ethics and coverage of small firm considerations as well as emerging issues such as integrated practice and integrated project delivery Jacket florida construction law Steven M. Siegfried, 1986 Contract Documentation for Contractors Vincent Powell-Smith, John H. M. Sims, Christopher Dancaster, 2008-04-30 The JCT standard forms of building contract require a thorough understanding of their procedural requirements as well as their legal implications They require both the contractor and the architect on behalf of the employer to send a wide range of notices and letters if each party is to protect its legitimate interests The main contract forms are also supported by complex sub contract documentation Therefore it is not surprising that when this book of specimen letters notices and forms was first published it was widely welcomed by the construction industry The book provides examples of documentation likely to be required for a contract under the following JCT forms the Standard Form of Building Contract the Intermediate Form of Building Contract the Agreement for Minor Building Works the Standard Form of Building Contract With Contractor s Design It includes a commentary on the practical implications of the various documents and highlights the points to be watched The new edition takes into account the wide range of amendments to the latest editions of the standard forms following the Housing Grants Construction and Regeneration Act 1996 and in particular the new payment and adjudication provisions For the first time it features documentation for use with the JCT design and build form Construction Documentation John A. Ricchini, James Jerome O'Brien, 1990 The Construction Contracts Book Daniel S. Brennan, 2008 Most construction lawyers are familiar with the American Institute of Architects AIA Engineers Joint Contract Documents Committee EJCDC forms of agreements and the newer ConsensusDOCS forms The ConsensusDocs forms replace many of the forms previously issued by the Associated General Contractors of America AGC Now completely revised this invaluable resource offers a topic by topic comparison of these forms by providing An easy reference guide to how the AIA ConsensusDOCS and EJCDC forms treat the most significant issues in owner contractor subcontractor and owner design professional agreements Proposed alternative language for situations where the form contract approach may not provide the best solution List comparing the most significant provisions from each of these forms on the CD ROM Modern Construction and Development Forms James A. Douglas, Rosa M. Koppel, Jack Kusnet, 1983 Encyclopædia of the Laws of England with Forms and Precedents by the Most Eminent Legal Authorities, 1907 Managing Construction Contracts Robert D. Gilbreath, 1992-04-16 This Second Edition focuses on the commercial issues of contracting covering the lifespan of a contract in four stages inception of need bid and award administration termination Written from the owners perspective it is appropriate for construction managers and contract administrators New material includes the effects of the computer on construction management practices the risks and rewards of cross border contracts and the role of the lawyer Recent Developments in Standard Form Construction Contract Documents, 2008 Substantial Rehabilitation & New Construction William Duncan, 2013-11-11 The procedures in this manual distill six years of learning about the most efficient acquisition and construction methods in this country for high volume production of housing affordable to low income people The people in the Rehab Work Group at The Enterprise Foundation have gathered this information first hand and conveyed it in training workshops on production management throughout the country Over 2000 participants in the workshops have included rehab specialists from city housing departments construction managers of single and multifamily rehab projects program managers from both nonprofit housing development organizations and city rehab departments as well as students in colleges and universities They are becoming the backbone of a new cadre of effective producers of affordable housing In the 30 cities and several rural areas where we have both learned and applied these production management techniques they have resulted in savings of 5 10 even 25 percent of the cost of housing development The Enterprise Foundation is a national nonprofit organization that my wife Patty and I launched in 1982 The Foundation's mission is to see that all very low income Americans have the opportunity for fit and affordable housing within a generation and work their way up and out of poverty into the main stream of American life
