

MODERN INSTALLATION ART

The background is a deep blue with several bright blue, particle-like trails that resemble comet tails or light streaks. These trails originate from the left and right edges and converge towards the center, where they form a large, dense, circular cluster of white and blue dots. The overall effect is dynamic and futuristic.

Contemporary Installation Art Li Aihong (Editor), 2015 Art installations are many things to many people inspiring notions of architecture sculpture or even physical poetry They represent pure emotion a brand or artist's ethos or lofty ideals through physical manipulations of color sound environment and materials The pieces in Contemporary Installation Art range from personal artist statements and explorations of raw materials to the most elegant forms of corporate branding and public use projects delicate and ephemeral or overwhelming in scale and bold in their choice of colors and design However despite the broad range of projects materials styles and world wide locations they all share the ability to represent unlimited possibilities and provide access to magical moments created by structural art Design Art of Villa III Artpower International, Li Aihong, 2014-05 Connecting architecture and interior design contemporary global living spaces that interact with the built and natural environment

Blurring the Boundaries Hugh Marlais Davies, Ronald J. Onorato, Museum of Contemporary Art, San Diego, 1997 Far from being the latest movement or a new development in contemporary art installation art one could argue is only the most recent manifestation of the oldest tradition in art going as far back as the prehistoric paintings on cave walls at Lascaux Fundamental to this work are its habitation and incorporation of a physical site a connection to real conditions be they visual historical or social and often a bridging of traditional art boundaries The aesthetic power of installation art does not reside in the singular commodified object but rather in the artwork's ability to become not merely represent the continuum of real experience Blurring the Boundaries examines the subject of installation art through the permanent collection and exhibition record of the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego an institution with a unique heritage in support of such art dating back to the 1960s Installation Art Tova R. Small, Seton Hall University. Department of Art and Music, 2009
