In your studies of social psychology, you will have learned about prejudice.

Using an example, describe what is meant by 'prejudice'.

Ageism, or age prejudice, for example, is a form of discrimination that targets individuals based only on their age. Elderly people may be perceived as being reluctant to change, while younger people may be assumed to be careless or lacking in work ethic.

We have an expert-written solution to this problem!

During a psychology lesson, Saima was asked to recall the contents of her history classroom. Some of the items she recalled included; 15 tables, a clock, paper, and a calendar. However, her history classroom did not contain a clock or a calendar.

Using reconstructive memory, describe why Saima incorrectly recalled some items from her history classroom.

Reconstructive memory uses the process of memory construction, in which recollections are shaped by individual
