Sourcing and Recruitment Handbook Jay Tarimala, 2020-11-10 The sourcing and recruitment community has come a long way from what it used to be 20 years back and as recently as 5 years back and the amount of technology changes has kept everyone on the tenterhooks The methods that you would adopt or Boolean strings that used to work today may not work tomorrow and there is a constant learning curve to keep oneself updated and also brings a healthy level of competition among individuals eager to show their wares The volume based or niche skills hiring has become a race to the finish The individuals with the super sourcing as well as relationship management skills tend to be more often than not the winners in the end The recruitment community looks to find the needle in the haystack every day to find the right candidate to fulfill the hiring manager mandate The ever bulging stock of search strings productivity tricks and their ways of thinking they implement are a stuff of legend The tools do not make a Sourcer or recruiter but they should always be seen as an assistant to free up their time for more productive conversations with prospective candidates This exercise is an attempt to equip the Talent Acquisition community with the various ways and methods to optimize their time and find the relevant information trends movers and shakers etc to be better prepared to find relevant candidates for their clients internal or external It is by no means an exhaustive list but a start nonetheless

Theoretical and Practical Aspect of Scientific Study of COMMUNICATION COMPETENCE Prof. Ram Lakhan Meena, 2022-01-22 Communicative competence is a term in linguistics that refers to a language user's grammatical knowledge of syntax morphology phonology and the like as well as social knowledge about how and when to use utterances appropriately The debate has occurred regarding linguistic competence and communicative competence in the second and foreign language teaching literature and scholars have found communicative competence as a superior model of language The notion of communicative competence is one of the theories that underlie the communicative approach to foreign language teaching Communicative competence in terms of three components grammatical competence words and rules sociolinguistic competence appropriateness strategic competence appropriate use of communication strategies The scientific study of Communicative competence is developing in a new dimension of language learning Language teaching in various parts of the global world is based on the idea that the goal of language acquisition is communicative competence the ability to use the language correctly and appropriately to accomplish communication goals The desired outcome of the language learning process is the ability to communicate competently not the ability to use the language exactly as a native speaker does but also communicative competence is made up of four competence areas linguistic sociolinguistic discourse and strategic In the early stages of language learning instructors and students may want to keep in mind the goal of communicative efficiency That learners should be able to make themselves understood using their current proficiency to the fullest They should try to avoid confusion in the message due to faulty pronunciation grammar or vocabulary avoid offending communication partners due to socially inappropriate style and use strategies for recognizing and managing communication breakdowns Communication skill is the ability to use our physical and mental faculties and previously learned conceptual frameworks about communication to move toward the accomplishment of a given objective or goal Communication skills fall into two categories initiating and consuming Initiating communication skills include asking and answering questions adapting language and speaking in public to name a few Consuming
