1914 ,1911     Anastasia Vladimir Megre,2008 You are about to read some of the most shocking revelations to appear in thousands of years of human history so significant that they are changing the course of our destiny and rocking scientific and religious circles to the core     Translation Mildred L. Larson,1991-01-01 This book is a collection of articles which highlight the fact that good translation theory is based on information gained from practice At the same time good practice is based on carefully worked out theory The two are interdependent The authors who have contributed are persons who know the importance of both theory and practice and the tension between the two They are not only translators but also have long experience in training others The articles cover a wide variety of topics grouped in five sections The first presents four graphic descriptions of what happens when one translates The second looks at aspects of the application of theory from the backgrounds of European and Asian translation practices The third has excellent articles which apply theory to the fields of poetry opera drama and humor The fourth section provides four ways of putting theory into practice The fifth gives language specific examples and the last section deals with the application of theory and practice to teaching in an academic context

Landscape and the Ideology of Nature in Exurbia K. Valentine Cadieux,Laura Taylor,2013-05-07 This book explores the role of the ideology of nature in producing urban and exurban sprawl It examines the ironies of residential development on the metropolitan fringe where the search for nature brings residents deeper into the world from which they are imagining their escape of Federal Express technologically mediated communications global supply chains and the anonymity of the global marketplace and where many of the central features of exurbia very low density residential land use monster homes and conversion of forested or rural land for housing contribute to the very problems that the social and environmental aesthetic of exurbia attempts to avoid The volume shows how this contradiction to live in the green landscape and to protect the green landscape from urbanization gets caught up and represented in the ideology of nature and how this ideology in turn constitutes and is constituted by the landscapes being urbanized     The Picture Collection John Cotton Dana,1928     Translating For Singing Ronnie

Apter,Mark Herman,2016-05-19 Translating for Singing discusses the art and craft of translating singable lyrics a topic of interest in a wide range of fields including translation music creative writing cultural studies performance studies and semiotics Previously such translation has most often been discussed by music critics many of whom had neither training nor experience in this area Written by two internationally known translators the book focusses mainly on practical techniques for creating translations meant to be sung to pre existing music with suggested solutions to such linguistic problems as those associated with rhythm syllable count vocal burden rhyme repetition and sound Translation theory and translations of lyrics for other purposes such as surtitles are also covered The book can serve as a primary text in courses on translating lyrics and as a reference and supplementary text for other courses and for professionals in the fields mentioned Beyond academia the book is of interest to professional translators and to librettists singers conductors stage directors and audience members
