Public Sociology Capstones Martin Tolich, 2018-04-17 Social science departments both nationally and internationally market boundless career destinations for their graduates but fail to identify the pathways to these lucrative destinations and appear oblivious to the social forces that threaten their existence such as the discerning parent's investment in their offspring's education and mounting individual student debt This book responds to these social forces drawing on Michael Burawoy's model of Public Sociology to show how a research centred experiential internship provides opportunities for students to draw on their prior learning and realise their potential to create pathways towards employment The author demonstrates how a specific research based course leading to employment with a non government organisation or government department was evaluated and incrementally developed giving voice to its multiple beneficiaries Designed for university teachers this book will appeal to those in social science departments who are using an internship service learning or capstone model for their senior undergraduate classes

Effective Practices to Reduce Bus Accidents Transit Cooperative Research Program, Technology & Management Systems, Inc, 2001 This report presents a directory of effective practices used to prevent bus accidents at small medium and large transit systems Most of the information was obtained from 182 transit systems in the United States and in Canada and from statewide transit insurance pools in six states The directory is designed to be used by transit management operations and safety personnel

Transit Journal, 1928

Power System BR Gupta, 2008 It is gratifying to note that the book has very widespread acceptance by faculty and students throughout the country In the revised edition some new topics have been added Additional solved examples have also been added The data of transmission system in India has been updated
