Sleeter,2024 This volume collects Christine Sleeter s core work focusing on critical multicultural education situating culture and identity within an analysis of power and racism Multicultural education arose in the context of the Civil Rights Movement and in its inception shared with that movement a focus on eradicating both interpersonal and systemic racism The problem this book takes up is that over time many people have come to understand and enact multicultural education in ways that evade grappling directly with racism This dilution has happened for several reasons including White teachers rearticulations of multicultural education as getting along or learning to be colorblind and neoliberal reforms that have reduced it to a celebration of cultural diversity while maintaining silence about racism This volume includes ten of Sleeter s articles that explicitly locate multicultural education within critical understandings of race racism and colonialism offering both theoretical and practical discussions of what that means A deeply researched contextualized and nuanced account of multicultural education H Richard Milner IV Vanderbilt University This beautiful and intersectional volume needs to be required reading in every school of education Robin DiAngelo coauthor of Is Everyone Really Equal This book is an important intervention on the side of racial justice in education Wayne Au editor Rethinking Schools Comprehensive Multicultural Education in the 21st Century Brandi Hinnant-Crawford,C. Spencer Platt,Christopher Newman,Adriel A. Hilton,2019-04-01 Multicultural education has become its own discipline developed on the shoulders of the work of giants who argued its merit during the attacks of opponents who believed assimilation was the purpose of state sponsored education In an age of rising populism and nationalism throughout the Western world again questioned is the merit of multicultural education In the shadows of Brexit and an America First agenda where migration patterns across the world have led to demographic shifts it is evident even in the richest countries in the world that gaps in opportunity and subsequently achievement still exist Disparities in achievement lead some to question whether multicultural education works and others to revert to old notions that ethnically and linguistically marginalized students are in fact deficient The scholars here believe in the untapped potential of all children and illuminate how educational structures have muffled the cultivation of that potential Contributors argue the goals of multicultural education have not been achieved in part due to the piecemeal application of its tenants The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education and articulates what educators committed to equity inclusion and a more just society must do to ensure the goals of multicultural education survive in the current age The authors of these chapters bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education With the diverse cast of contributors and topics ranging from mathematics instruction to discipline practices this volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues of access access to curricular content access to opportunities to learn as well as impediments to access Containing chapters that speak to discipline specific pedagogical practices the structures of schooling teacher education and research methodologies the collected work encourages scholars and practitioners to not be discouraged in the age of retrenchment
