Member States and the UK Maciej Bernatt, Francisco Marcos, Annalies Outhuijse, 2024-09-17 International Competition Law Series 91 Enforcement of competition law often calls for a complex economic and legal assessment and the review of those enforcement decisions usually falls to national courts In this connection however European competition law and legal scholarship have offered scant guidance on how judicial review should and does function This book the first comprehensive systematic and comparative empirical study of judicial review of competition law public enforcement in the EU and the UK provides a thorough understanding of the practical operation of the role of judicial review in competition enforcement A country by country analysis along with a detailed introduction and an incisive comparative summary covers all publicly available judicial review judgments 5 707 in all of final public enforcement actions in relation to Articles 101 and 102 TFEU and relevant national provisions in the twenty seven EU Member States and the UK rendered between 1 May 2004 and 30 April 2021 The data presented draws on a rich database built for the purpose of this study by twenty eight national teams of competition law academics and practitioners For each jurisdiction the analysis focuses on such aspects as the following structure of the national enforcement system number of judgments rendered success rate types of appellants competition rules subject to review grounds of review use of preliminary references appeals involving leniency and or settlements and role of third parties Numerous graphs figures and tables support the presentation In the light it sheds on trends in judicial review of competition law enforcement on a comparative basis and in its data driven assessment of how the decentralised judicial review of EU competition law meets EU integration aims this important study will be of inestimable value to competition lawyers policymakers and academics in developing a confident understanding of precisely how judicial review in this area operates in each of the EU Member States and the UK In addition the book provides a significant contribution not only with respect to EU and national competition laws but also more broadly to comparative administrative law scholarship in Europe

The Law of Unmanned Aircraft Systems Benjamyn I. Scott, 2022-07-12 Aerospace Law and Policy Series Volume 11 In recent years few industries have grown so prodigiously as that of unmanned aircraft systems UAS and as a result developments in national regional and international law and policy are being initiated and implemented This new edition of the definitive survey and guide first published in 2016 reflects the expansion of this sector and the importance placed on it by a diverse range of stakeholders as well as the enlarged regulatory and policy landscape In addition to updating many of the original chapters the second edition covers new topics and moves away from a purely introductory book to a more detailed and critical compendium Authorship has also been extended beyond the original scope of contributors which originally centred around those affiliated with Leiden University's Institute of Air and Space Law and now includes additional experts from all around the world each of whom explores both already existing rules and proposals coming from national regional and international levels As well as broadened discussions on such fundamental legal issues as insurance financing liability accidents investigation privacy cyber security stakeholder organisations and industry standards the second edition takes into account major recent developments in such areas as the following applicability and relevance of international regulatory instruments coming into force of the European Union UAS related laws evolution of different States national law public safety e g design production operation and maintenance development of unmanned traffic management systems commercial operations including urban air mobility e g flying taxis cargo delivery high altitude activities and developments in defence and security e g dual use counter UAS industry to combat illegal use As in the first edition a representative cross section of national laws is included covering twenty one different jurisdictions This fully updated edition not only synthesises and clarifies the complex body of international regional and national UAS related law but also provides expert insight into trends and areas of concern for numerous stakeholders Without a doubt it will be of immeasurable value to lawyers relevant governmental and non governmental agencies aviation law scholars and strategic planners in the wider aviation and transport industries
