Hollins, 2015-03-12 The focus of this book is the centrality of clinical experiences in preparing teachers to work with students from diverse cultural economic and experiential backgrounds Organized around three themes learning teaching through the approximation and representation of practice learning teaching situated in context and assessing and improving teacher preparation Rethinking Field Experiences in Preservice Teacher Preparation provides detailed descriptions of theoretically grounded research based practices in programs that prepare preservice teachers to contextualize teaching practices in ways that result in a positive impact on learning for traditionally underserved students These practices serve current demands for teacher accountability for student learning outcomes and model good practice for engaging teacher educators in meaningful productive dialogue and analysis geared to developing local programs characterized by coherence continuity and consistency Metrics, Standards and Alignment in Teacher Policy Jessica

Holloway, 2021-01-07 This book looks at the narrowing effects of contemporary modes of teacher and teaching policy and governance It draws on political theory to provide new ways of conceptualising the effects of teacher and teaching policies and practices It adds a new dimension to the robust body of literature related to teacher policy by looking at three interrelated domains 1 teacher preparation and development 2 teacher evaluation and 3 teacher leadership Drawing from case studies from the USA UK and Australia it illustrates how a coalescence around metrics standards and compliance is producing increasingly restricted notions of teachers and teaching It shows how the rationalities and techniques associated with accountability and standardisation are limiting the possibilities for multiple conceptualisations of teaching and teachers to exist or emerge Using pluralism as the main framework it challenges the dangers associated with rigid compliance and alignment and argues that pluralism can help secure schools as socially and culturally responsive to the needs of the community The SAGE Encyclopedia of Contemporary Early Childhood Education Donna Couchenour, J.
