today as the illustrator of whimsical stories for children but in fact he worked in many styles and genres throughout his life The son of a painter he was apprenticed to a wood engraver at the age of thirteen and his father died shortly afterwards By the time his apprenticeship was completed Crane was painting as well as engraving and joined the circle of the Pre Raphaelites being especially influenced by the politics of William Morris and the aesthetics of the Arts and Crafts movement This highly illustrated 1907 autobiography traces his life from his childhood in Torquay through the difficult period following his father s death to his success as an illustrator and decorative artist describing work politics and travel Crane may have felt that he was not given recognition as a serious painter but this engaging account of a happy life does not show it The Girl
