Being Religious Interreligiously Peter C. Phan, 2015-02-25      Philosophical and Theological Responses to Syncretism Mika Vähäkangas, Patrik Fridlund, 2017-09-25 Theological and Philosophical Responses to Syncretism Beyond the Mirage of Pure Religion by Patrik Fridlund and Mika V h kangas eds starts from the observation that there is a substantial gap between religions self understanding and the empirical results of religious studies concerning religious blending Even in theology of religion one often portrays religions as if they were entities fundamentally separate from each other The aims of this book are to elaborate theologically the consequences of syncretism to Christian faith and of syncretism to philosophy By creating a critical interchange between theological philosophical and empirical approaches to religion this book challenges the conventional views of purity of religions prevailing in theology and philosophy as well as proposes theological and philosophical ways forward Contributors are Jonas Adelin Stephen Bevans Gavin d Costa Patrik Fridlund Lotta Gammelín Elizabeth Harris Jerker Karlsson Paul Linjamaa Kang San Tan Mika V h kangas      The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies Lucinda Mosher, 2022 The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies is a comprehensive authoritative creative and cutting edge anthology of fifty essays that taken as a group provide insight into and food for further thought about sub categories of a field of academic inquiry that has developed rapidly in recent decades Interreligious Studies is an academic field in which scholars deliberately draw on at least one other religion in addition to their home tradition when reflecting on worldview questions an arena in which at least one religious discourse is involved with some other discourse Hence Interreligious Studies is inherently multi disciplinary bringing together the study of religion s with methodologies from the fields of anthropology sociology psychology political science history women s studies ecology and more Interreligious Studies gives pride of place to relational intersectional and dialogical approaches as it seeks theoretical and practical insights through the examination of how religions relate to each other to their own internal diversity to various social systems to society at large A recent assessment of Interreligious Studies programs in universities and theological schools indicates that they make wide but not exclusive use of comparative and critical methods that their purposes include cultivation of religious literacy promotion of dialogue fostering of citizenship and professional preparation for leadership in multireligious contexts      Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-06-20 This title tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths      Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers, Ashley Cocksworth, 2024-02-21 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology's engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology's engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford's The Modern Theologians An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable resource for researchers those involved in various forms of Christian ministry teachers of religious studies and general readers engaged in independent study

The New Comparative Theology Francis X. Clooney, 2010-06-03 This book is an extended critical reflection on the state of interreligious dialogue in its modern version While there has been some important writing in the field of comparative theology there has been no extended critical reflection on the state of the discipline in its modern version its strengths and problematic areas as it grows as a serious theological and scholarly discipline This work of young scholars in conversation with one another remedies this lack by as it were taking the discipline apart and putting it back together again The volume seeks to understand how to learn from multiple religions in a way that is truly open to those religions on their own terms while yet being rooted in the tradition s that we bring to our interreligious study

Being Religious Interreligiously Peter C. Phan, 2004 Vietnamese American Peter Phan reflects on cultural diversity in spiritual life focussing on the question of how much uniformity people will tolerate in life liturgy denominational self definition

The Im-possibility of Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2008 In the face of competing religious claims in our shrinking world many turn to dialogue as a hopeful way of fostering understanding and reducing violence But why does actual dialogue so often fail This provocative study investigates the possibilities and limits of interreligious dialogue By showing the significant obstacles for dialogue within Christianity the book also proposes ways in which these obstacles may be overcome from within Major themes include Humility Conviction Interconnection Empathy and Generosity Toward Japanese Ways of Christian Worship Saya Ojiri, 2025-11-27 This book explores the socio cultural dimensions of rice ritual and relationship in Japanese culture utilizing critical resources drawn from the methodologies of liturgical inculturation ritual studies and postcolonial theory Vatican II William Madges, 2006 This work presents a Second Vatican Council summoned by Pope John XXIII began in October 1962 and took place during four autumn sessions until 1965 This Council was a watershed in both world Christian and world religious history This work presents a collection of essays on the effects and influence of the Second Vatican Council on the church The key contributors include Paul Knitter Peter Phan and Christine Firer Hinze Provided by publisher Edward Schillebeeckx and Interreligious Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2012-01-23 If Schillebeeckx had been Asian how would he have responded to the phenomenon of religious pluralism This book attempts to answer that question beginning with a dialogue with the Vatican Declaration Dominus Iesus and discerning how Schillebeeckx's methodology has been applied in Asian theology Employing the hermeneutical critical method Schillebeeckx asserts that the Word of God did not come down to us as it were vertically in a purely divine statement it must be interpreted In today's context of so many religions so many cultures and so many poor God's Word invites the church to be a sacrament of dialogue Through dialogue the church will be challenged by other religions and challenge them in return Christianity will then be put in its place as well as given the place which is its due

Prophetic Witness Colleen M. Griffith, 2009 Presenting practical strategies for reform and renewal of the Church this strikingly direct volume brings together the voices of leading Catholic theologians who offer ideas for change while still showing that feminist reflection can work in support of the Church With insightful essays on a wide range of complex topics from Catholic sexual ethics in the 21st century and practical theology in global Christian contexts to race class and gender and the next generation of faithful women this inspirational anthology provides an exciting perspective into the lives of practicing women and the particular challenges they face within the Church Contributors include Susan Abraham Karen A Barta Rosemary P Carbine Francine Cardman and M Shawn Copeland among many others Catholic Social Justice

Philomena Cullen, Bernard Hoose, Gerard Mannion, 2007 An examination of the social issues facing the church today On the Genealogies and Geographies of Philosophical and Theological Thinking Paul Duane Matheny, 2006 Origins, 2007 Interfaith Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2016-09-15 This book addresses issues central to today's Catholic Church focusing on the relationship between various religions in different contexts and regions across the world The diverse array of contributors present an inclusively interfaith enterprise investigating a wide range of encounters and perspectives The essays include approaches from the Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Bah traditions in a variety of geographic contexts Contributors reflect on Muslims in the West Christian Buddhist social activism and on Chinese Indian and Japanese religions The volume also explores the experiences of communities that are often marginalized and overlooked such as the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders of Australia and the Karen tribal peoples of Thailand Contributors examine the works of the Focolare G len and Rissh K sei kai movements and integrate the vision of Raimon Panikkar and Ken Wilber Chapters incorporate discussions of dialogue documents such as Nostra Aetate and Dabru Emet and methodologies such as Receptive Ecumenism Comparative Theology and Scriptural Reasoning Among other goals the book seeks to offer glimpses into interfaith dialogues across the world and examine what Christians can learn from other religions and global contexts
