

This exploded view diagram illustrates the assembly of a DeLorco carburetor. The central component is the carburetor body, with various jets, needles, and float components shown in their relative positions. Key parts include the float bowl at the bottom, the main jet assembly at the top, and the float arm mechanism on the right. Numerous small parts like screws, washers, and O-rings are also depicted. A callout box in the upper left shows a specific part, and another in the lower right shows a detailed view of the float arm linkage. The DeLorco logo is visible on a component in the upper left.
