send-home calendars

The image shows a stack of three 'Play and Learn' calendars for the months of November, September, and August. The calendars are colorful (orange, blue, and green respectively) and feature a grid layout for each day of the month. Each calendar includes a header with the month and title, and a grid with days of the week and dates. The August calendar is the most prominent, showing activities like 'Find something that starts with the letter A' and 'Find 3 things that are red'. A black dog's head is visible in the foreground on the left side.
