Denise Levertov A Poet S Life:

Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-14 Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself This volume represents the first attempt to set Levertov s poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life     A Poet's Revolution Donna Hollenberg, 2013-04-17 This first full length biography of Anglo American poet and activist Denise Levertov 1923 1997 brings to life one of the major voices of the second half of the twentieth century when American poetry was a powerful influence worldwide Drawing on exhaustive archival research and interviews with 75 friends of Levertov as well as on Levertov s entire opus Donna Krolik Hollenberg s authoritative biography captures the full complexity of Levertov as both woman and artist and the dynamic world she inhabited She charts Levertov s early life in England as the daughter of a Russian Hasidic father and a Welsh mother her experience as a nurse in London during WWII her marriage to an American after the war and her move to New York City where she became a major figure in the American poetry scene The author chronicles Levertov s role as a passionate social activist in volatile times and her importance as a teacher of writing Finally Hollenberg shows how the spiritual dimension of Levertov s poetry deepened toward the end of her life so that her final volumes link lyric perception with political and religious commitment     Life in the Forest Denise Levertov, 1978     The Life Around Us Denise Levertov, 1997 Gathered here in one handy volume are 62 poems about nature and the ecology But as the author notes in her preface these are not all praise poems celebration and fear of loss are necessarily conjoined This compact gift book will have special appeal to those who love Mother Earth     Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg, 2018-06-30 A reflection on this poet s legacy through essays by contemporary poets and literary critics Denise Levertov 1923 1997 was an award winning author of more than thirty books of poetry and prose featuring the subjects of politics and war and in later years religion Born and raised in England amid political unrest and war Levertov moved to the United States after World War II and settled in as a passionate poet activist for peace and environmental conservation She initially gained recognition as a member of the Black Mountain poets and later as a highly respected mentor and educator at esteemed universities including Massachusetts Institute of Technology Brandeis and Stanford where she helped shape future generations of poets In Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg has assembled ten essays by contemporary poets who were influenced by Levertov as former students and or colleagues and another ten by literary critics Hollenberg selected contributors on the basis of their spiritual intellectual and political connections with Levertov at different stages of her life in the United States and all are distinguished in their own right The first five poets became acquainted with Levertov in the 1960s and 1970s when she and they protested against the war in Vietnam The next five poets who were close to Levertov in the 1980s and 1990s while she was at Stanford respond to aspects of Levertov's religious quest and her love and concern for the natural world To assess Levertov's influence on contemporary poetry Hollenberg has organized the essays into pairs First a contributor offers a personal essay about his or her relationship with Levertov which is followed by a companion essay about the contributor's poetry in relation to Levertov's What emerges is a dialogue between autobiographical testimony and critical analysis This combination of personal witness and objective evaluation contributes to a greater understanding of the contemporary poetry scene and the influence of Levertov's distinguished and affecting legacy Contributors Rae Armantrout Eavan Boland Martha Collins Alison Hawthorne Deming Susan Eisenberg Reginald Gibbons Donna Krolak Hollenberg Romana Huk Paul Lacey Aldon Lynn Nielsen Kathleen Norris Mark Pawlak Peggy Rosenthal Ben S enz Peter Dale Scott David Shaddock Michael Thurston Emily Warn Bruce Weigl Al Young
