Kimbro contacted one thousand grandmothers women from a wide range of backgrounds and locations asking If you had to write a one page letter to your children or the next generation what would you tell them about life Their answers collected here show that success in life cannot be measured in terms of wealth and material goods alone The lives they describe and the advice they proffer capture both a richness in spirit and a strong belief in the power of every individual to take charge of his or her own destiny In the face of racism both blatant and subtle financial struggles and personal setbacks black grandmothers have helped their communities in thousands of tangible and intangible ways providing support inspiration and love not only to their own children and grandchildren but also to neighbors friends and extended families Filled with examples of how even the smallest acts of kindness and compassion can make a difference in the world What Keeps Me Standing is a treasure trove of the wisdom that comes with years of experience transformation and growth It is the perfect gift
