

open-minded, attentive to detail, compassionate, and committed. Moreover, in a stressful situation, I will be ready to act with zero uncertainty. My goal is to have nothing less than perfect results in all my future endeavors.

Once it comes to sensitizing people about the risks of bad oral hygiene, my skills will become essential. The oral cavity is one of the most sensitive regions. So, dealing with patients requires a great deal of accuracy. I can also create an informal and friendly atmosphere for any client so that they can feel comfortable.

Over the past few years, the need to promote dental care has increased. It especially concerns the prevention of various oral infections. As a consequence, this puts a lot of stress on dentists who have to look after the increasing number of patients. While dentists are often concerned with technical procedures, dental hygienist services are required to provide preventive care. That is, among other responsibilities that aid in the treatment of patients with dental problems.

I can think of several main duties of a dental hygienist that I can skillfully perform. Several of the essential tasks include brushing and polishing the teeth of customers, as well as flossing them. Sealing the teeth of patients to avoid cavities is also a critical duty. Another task is to consult the clients. A dental hygienist should keep them updated about how to improve dental health and resolve any occurring issues.

A dental assistant must take and analyze X-rays until a dentist evaluates the anatomy of the teeth for new treatment procedures. Dental hygienists are accountable for devising the patient's report cards. A dental hygienist's job includes assisting the dentists. They are responsible for dental care procedures that are more complicated and require additional experience. For example, a fluoride varnish must be done by the dentist.

I would like to faithfully represent the society once I have earned the first accreditation as a dental hygienist. I desire to improve in the profession. So, I will surely pursue further studies in this area to reach a master's degree. This goal is set
