Australian Film Theory and Criticism Noel King, Constantine Verevis, Deane Williams, Edwin Fox, Jelena Stanovnik, 2013 Australian Film Theory and Criticism Noel King, Constantine Verevis, Deane Williams, 2013 Three volume work devoted to mapping the transnational history of Australian film studies Australian Film Theory and Criticism Volume 1 provides an overview of the period between 1975 and 1990 during which the discipline first became established in the academy Tracing critical positions personnel Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema Karina Aveyard, Albert Moran, Errol Vieth, 2017-12-26 Filmmakers have honed their skills and many have achieved critical and popular success at home and abroad as have actors and other crew American filmmakers and companies have found it cheaper to make films in Australia because wages and salaries are lower tax rebates have been attractive and the expertise in most areas of filmmaking is comparable to that of anywhere in the world At the same time Australian audiences still enjoy watching Australian films making some of them profitable even if this is a small profit when considered in Hollywood terms New Zealand filmmakers cast and crew have shown that they are equal to the world's best in making films with international themes while other films have shown that the world is interested in New Zealand narratives and settings Increased support for Maori filmmakers and stories has had a significant impact on production levels and on the diversity of stories that now reach the screen It has also helped create more viable career paths for those who continue to be based in their home country This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Australian and New Zealand Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on leading films as well as many directors writers actors and producers It also covers early pioneers film companies genres and government bodies

Doctoral Research Supervision, Pedagogy and the PhD Bill Green, Catherine Manathunga, Alison Lee, 2023-06-30 The book brings together for the first time a range of integrated essays produced out of a programme of research and scholarship designed to better understand advanced level research supervision as pedagogy Doctoral Research Supervision Pedagogy and the PhD questions the traditions of how doctoral work is accomplished in the context of the changing role of research and universities in contemporary societies Focused on research supervision and the pedagogies of doctoral work the book brings together for the first time a range of integrated essays produced out of a programme of research and scholarship designed to better understand advanced level research supervision as pedagogy Those original ground breaking chapters are framed by new work extending the overall argument reflecting on the emergence and development of doctoral education research and evaluating the state of the field today This book is of interest to scholars and postgraduate researchers in higher education postgraduate and doctoral education supervision and the philosophy and theory of higher education

Mysteries of Cinema Adrian Martin, 2025-10-01 The major essays of the distinguished and prolific Australian born film critic Adrian Martin have long been difficult to access so this anthology which collects highlights of his work in one volume will be welcomed throughout film studies Martin offers indepth analysis of many genres of films while providing a broad understanding of the history of cinema and the history of film criticism and culture These vibrant highly personal essays written between 1982 and 2016 balance breadth across cinema theory with almost encyclopedic detail ranging between aesthetics cinephilia film genre criticism philosophy and cultural politics Mysteries of Cinema circumscribes a special cultural period that began with the dream of critique as a form of poetic writing and today arrives at collaborative experiments in audiovisual essays Throughout these essays Martin pursues a particular vision of what cinema has been what it is and what it still could be

LGBTQ Film Festivals Antoine Damiens, 2025-10-01 While scholars have theorized major film festivals they have ignored smaller ephemeral events In taking seriously minor European and North American LGBTQ festivals which often only exist as traces within archival collections this book revisits festival studies methodological and theoretical apparatuses As the first critique of festival studies from within LGBTQ Film Festivals argues that both festivals and queer film cultures are by definition ephemeral The book is organized around two concepts First critical festival studies examines the political project and disciplinary assumptions that structure festival research Second the festival as a method pays attention to festivals role as producers of knowledge it argues that festivals are not mere objects of research but also actors already shaping academic industrial and popular cinematic knowledge Drawing on the author s experience on the festival circuit this book pays homage to the labour of queer organizers critics and scholars and opens up new avenues for festival research

Roger Sandall's Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer, 2019-09-12 A look at a prize winning documentarian whose work with aboriginal Australians and others united the fields of film and anthropology in the 1960s and 70s In Roger Sandall s Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer argues that while social anthropology and documentary film share historic roots and goals particularly on the continent of Australia their trajectories have tended to remain separate This book reunites film and anthropology through the works of Roger Sandall a New Zealand born filmmaker and Columbia University graduate who was part of the vibrant avant garde and social documentary film culture in New York in the 1960s Mentored by Margaret Mead in anthropology and Cecile Starr in fine arts Sandall was eventually hired as the one man film unit at the newly formed Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1965 In the 1970s he became a lecturer in anthropology at the University of Sydney Sandall won First Prize for Documentary at the Venice Film Festival in 1968 yet his films are scarcely known even in Australia now Mortimer demonstrates how Sandall s films continue to be relevant to contemporary discussions in the fields of anthropology and documentary studies She ties exploration of the making and restriction of Sandall s aboriginal films and his nonrestricted films made in Mexico Australia and India to the radical history of anthropology and the resurgence today of an expanded existential phenomenological anthropology that encompasses the vital connections between humans animals things and our environment

Australian Screen in the 2000s Mark David Ryan, Ben Goldsmith, 2017-11-23 This book provides coverage of the diversity of Australian film and television production between 2000 and 2015 In this period Australian film and television have been transformed by new international engagements the emergence of major new talents and a movement away with earlier films preoccupation with what it means to be Australian With original contributions from leading scholars in the field the collection contains chapters on particular genres horror blockbusters and comedy Indigenous Australian film and television women s filmmaking queer cinema representations of history Australian characters in non Australian films and films about Australians in Asia as well as chapters on sound in Australian cinema and the distribution of screen content The book is both scholarly and accessible to the general reader It will be of particular relevance to students and scholars of Anglophone film and television as well as to anyone with an interest in Australian culture and creativity

The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles, 1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshow s landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on
