Building a new library or expanding or renovating an existing building brings up a host of questions and concerns, not the least of which involves the future of the library. This book addresses those issues in light of an overarching positive vision of libraries and their evolving purposes and roles in the 21st century. This guide identifies and addresses all of the steps in the building process including preparing the request for proposal (RFP), selecting the right architect for the job, developing a financial contingency plan, and managing stakeholders' expectations. The book presents both the perspectives and experience of library administrators and management personnel as well as the insights of accomplished library architects and designers. It provides thorough practical and current guidance in a process that library administrators often find daunting and risk-immersive. Reading this book is like sitting down with a knowledgeable, impartial consultant before beginning a major renovation project, a tremendous asset for library administrators as well as architectural firms.
