The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation Slav Gratchev, Margarita Marinova, 2022-10-06

Although Mikhail Bakhtin's study of the novel does not focus in any systematic way on the role that translation plays in the processes of novelistic creation and dissemination when he does broach the topic he grants translation a disproportionately significant role in the emergence and constitution of literature. The contributors to this volume from the US Hong Kong Finland Japan Spain Italy Bangladesh and Belgium bring their own polyphonic experiences with the theory and practice of translation to the discussion of Bakhtin's ideas about this topic in order to illuminate their relevance to translation studies today. Broadly stated the essays examine the art of translation as an exercise in a cultural re-accentuation a transferal of the original text and its characters to the novel soil of a different language and culture which inevitably leads to the proliferation of multivalent meanings and to explore the various re-accentuation devices employed over the span of the last 100 years in translating modern texts from one language to another. Through its contributors The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation brings together different cultural contexts and disciplines such as literature literary theory the visual arts pedagogy translation studies and philosophy to demonstrate the continued international relevance of Bakhtin's ideas to the study of creative practices broadly understood. Aspects of Time and Memory in Literature for Children and Young Adults

Tzina Kalogirou, Dorota Michulka, 2025-02-07 This volume offers a wide variety of theoretical and critical reflections on the ways that different aspects of time and memory are deployed in literature and media for children and young adults that are related to historically and regionally contingent concepts of childhood from picturebooks to cross over and young adult novels from classic children's literature to adaptations of fairy tales and from musical adaptations to films. The interface of the two concepts in question is explored through a range of diverse writers' texts and cultural traditions across the 19th to 21st centuries. The collection addresses key topics in modern critical theory and children's literature criticism such as the imaginative reconstruction of the past the depiction of time and time objects in picturebooks the notions of traumatic memory and post memory in literature. It also considers how texts work as sites of memory by referring to and thus revisiting challenging or reinterpreting older genres. Domestication and Foreignization in Translation Studies Hannu

Kemppanen, Marja Jänis, Alexandra Belikova, 2012-06-01 Papers from a conference held September 29 October 1 2011 in Joensuu Finland. Negotiating Translation and Transcreation of Children's Literature Joanna Dybiec-Gajer, Riitta

Oittinen, Małgorzata Kodura, 2020-05-04 This book offers fresh critical insights to the field of children's literature translation studies by applying the concept of transcreation established in the creative industries of the globalized world to bring to the fore the transformative transgressional and creative aspects of rewriting for children and young audiences. This socially situated and culturally dependent practice involves ongoing complex negotiations between creativity and normativity balancing text related problems and genre conventions with readers' expectations constraints imposed by established canonical translations and publishers demands Focussing on the translator s strategies and decision making process the book investigates phenomena where transcreation is especially at play in children s literature such as dual address ambiguity nonsense humour play on words and other creative language use these also involve genre specific requirements for example rhyme and rhythm in poetry The book draws on a wide range of mostly Anglophone texts for children and their translations into languages of limited diffusion to demonstrate the numerous ways in which information meaning and emotions are transferred to new linguistic and cultural contexts While focussing mostly on interlingual transfer the volume analyses a variety of translation types from established canonical renditions by celebrity translators to non professional translations and intralingual rewritings It also examines iconotextual dynamics of text and image The book employs a number of innovative methodologies from cognitive linguistics and ethnolinguistics to semiotics and autoethnographic approaches going beyond text analysis to include empirical research on children s reactions to translation strategies Highlighting the complex dynamics at work in the process of transcreating for children this volume is essential reading for students and researchers in translation studies children s fiction and adaptation studies

Verschueren, 2014-07-16 Children s classics from Alice in Wonderland to the works of Astrid Lindgren Roald Dahl J K Rowling and Philip Pullman are now generally recognized as literary achievements that from a translator s point of view are no less demanding than serious adult literature This volume attempts to explore the various challenges posed by the translation of children s literature and at the same time highlight some of the strategies that translators can and do follow when facing these challenges A variety of translation theories and concepts are put to critical use including Even Zohar s polysystem theory Toury s concept of norms Venuti s views on foreignizing and domesticating translations and on the translator s in visibility and Chesterman s prototypical approach Topics include the ethics of translating for children the importance of childhood images the revelation of the translator in prefaces the role of translated children's books in the establishment of literary canons the status of translations in the former East Germany questions of taboo and censorship in the translation of adolescent novels the collision of norms in different translations of a Swedish children's classic the handling of cultural intertextuality in the Spanish translations of contemporary British fantasy books strategies for translating cultural markers such as juvenile expressions functional shifts caused by different translation strategies dealing with character names and complex translation strategies used in dealing with the dual audience in Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tales and in Salman Rushdie's Haroun and the Sea of Stories Whose Story? Maria González Davies, Riitta Oittinen, 2008 This book is based on the discussions carried out in two seminars on the translation of children's literature coordinated by Maria González Davies and led by Riitta Oittinen The main focus finally revolved around four questions a Tackling the challenges posed by translating children's literature both picturebooks and books with illustrations and the range of strategies available to solve specific issues b the special characteristics involved in reading aloud its emotional dimension and the sphere it occupies between private and public reading c the interpretation and manipulation of childhood images and d the role of the translator publishers and mediators as active or passive agents whose decisions may finally mirror the images projected by the authors of the source books This volume is also professionally oriented and presents examples that underline the interaction between theory and practice The topics range from Bible translation to translating the classics such as Beatrix Potter's tales and fairytales fantasy worlds for young adults as depicted in Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings or novels such as those by Christine Nostlinger as well as stories with a psychological and social function such as the African war tales Finally it includes didactic applications that help enhance an awareness of the issues involved
