Eliminating barriers in offering goods and services across EU borders Hilal Jalaludeen,2019-12-19 Master s Thesis from the year 2019 in the subject Economics Foreign Trade Theory Trade Policy grade 1 3 Otto Beisheim School of Management Vallendar language English abstract The author aims at providing an objective and comprehensive analysis of the selected issues initiatives under consideration with respect to the 30 DSM legislative initiatives addressing 24 issues proposed by the Juncker Commission since presenting the DSM strategy in 2015 The author then goes on to explain the major issues that the Juncker Commission ignored or did not address properly in the 30 DSM legislative initiatives these have been titled flexible working arrangements pros and cons gender digital gap socio cultural and political issues and coherent European strategy for AI The DSM strategy presented by the Juncker Commission in 2015 has been a special topic in the EU Since then the Juncker Commission has been able to come up with a number of significant DSM legislative initiatives to make good on the promise of laying a strong foundation for the creation of a fully fledged DSM in the EU As the Juncker Commission s tenure comes to an end in 2019 it is the right time to reflect on these DSM legislative initiatives and determine its success or lack thereof in eliminating various barriers in offering goods and services across EU borders As expected some of these initiatives have been more controversial than others This implies that some of these initiatives received the most attention from both the critics and the proponents Undoubtedly the DSM initiatives have been extensively analysed and written about by many academicians and experts But as the author correctly hypothesized a bulk of this research had been often too narrow In other words most of the academic and non academic papers that have analysed DSM initiatives focused only on a single initiative the entire paper Sometimes the focus of a paper has been even narrower there are many papers that have focused only on the impact of a particular DSM initiative on a specific variable The author admits the importance and superiority of this type of research However the author opines that it is also important to analyse these initiatives more broadly Social Protection for Sustainable Development Leisa Perch,2016 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1906 Defense White Paper ,2014 Heart of Public Service: Our institutions ,2015 History of public services in Singapore The Indian Labour Year Book ,2017 UCLA Journal of International Law and Foreign Affairs ,2016 The Indian Journal of Agricultural Sciences ,2017 Urbanization and Development ,2016 The analysis of urban development of the past twenty years presented in this maiden edition of the World Cities Report shows with compelling evidence that there are new forms of collaboration and cooperation planning governance finance and learning that can sustain positive change The Report unequivocally demonstrates that the current urbanization model is unsustainable in many respects It conveys a clear message that the pattern of urbanization needs to change in order to better respond to the challenges of our time to address issues such as inequality climate change informality insecurity and the unsustainable forms of urban expansion The Business Review ,2015 Language Policy in Ghana as a Societal Factor of Change Rüdiger Thomsen,2021-11-25 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 1 0 University of Constance Anglistik Amerikanistik course Documentation and Revitalization of Endangered Languages language English abstract This term paper gives a concise understanding of language policy in Ghana The West African region has recently suffered from a number of serious problems The horrendous outbreak of the Ebola virus has affected countries like Mali Guinea Liberia and Sierra Leone According to the WHO the official death toll in the region has already exceeded an alarming 5 160 people out of more than 14 000 Ebola cases by mid November 2014 Although Nigeria s recent declaration of being Ebola free has given some hope the upcoming elections are overshadowed by terrorist attacks of the Boko Haram group Burkina Faso s military coup beginning of November led to an interim government uncertainties still remain whether the county will find its way back to civilian rule Against the above mentioned issues of health and political instability language and education may indeed seem fairly irrelevant Still if we consider the more general socio cultural dimension of a positive transformation of the African region language is an important factor in the process Accordingly Bernard Spolsky emphasizes the importance of language policy as one of the new major topics in dealing with a society s situation
