Inside Education Stephen O'Brien, 2015-12-22 To learn more about learning what it is and how it works it is necessary to look inside education Inside Education takes the reader on a journey of four live education projects the first all Irish speaking mixed gendered multi faith primary school in the Republic of Ireland ideally suited to exploring learning identity an alternative post primary school for those who leave or are left behind by the formal education system also based in the Republic of Ireland and ideally suited to exploring personal learning an early college school that enables students to simultaneously sit their high school diploma and college exams based in Queens New York and ideally suited to exploring learning success and an adult education training centre that works with landless movement members based in Brazil and ideally suited to exploring learning power Using a critical ethnography approach each research narrative naturally unfolds enfolds to tell a more complete learning story All those interested in education are primed readers By re viewing their own learning outlook they may begin to advance deeper critical ideas and debates in education They may come to re represent education reminding public consciousness of its human stories as well as its curious intricate and powerful qualities And they may re discover other roads to raise a scholar Teachers educational researchers parents and guardians will be particularly interested readers Inside Education is a thought provoking challenging and revealing journey inside the world of education and learning Its exploration of school and classroom practices in a range of different settings provides important insights into how we learn a central aspect of our education system which remains overlooked and understudied In doing so it lays down a challenge to policy makers and educators everywhere to think differently about the way we learn and ultimately help students fulfil their real potential Carl O'Brien Chief Reporter for The Irish Times Inside Education is a stunning example of passionate scholarship that nonetheless refuses a redemptionist stance The ethnography captures people and contexts and draws the reader into the four sites of learning in fluent and lyrical prose This is facilitated by the extensive use of research notes deploying historical comparative literary artistic and scholarly sources Denis O'Sullivan Emeritus Professor of Education University College Cork Ireland

Affirmative Action for Economically Weaker Sections and Upper-Castes in Indian Constitutional Law Asang Wankhede, 2022-09-30 This book examines the controversial 103rd Constitutional Amendment to the Indian Constitution that introduced an income and asset ownership based new constitutional standard for determining backwardness marking a significant shift in the government's social and public policy It also analyses state level policies towards backwardness recognition of upper caste dominant groups through case studies of Maharashtra Haryana and Gujarat It provides an analytical and descriptive account of the proliferation of reservation policy in India and critiques these interventions to assess their implication on constitutional jurisprudence Further it assesses the theoretical and empirical challenges such developments pose to the principle of substantive equality and scope of affirmative action policies in Indian constitutional law and general discrimination law theory The monograph shows how opening up of reservations for dominant upper caste groups and general category will have implications for the constitutional commitment to addressing deeply entrenched marginalisation emanating from the traditional social hierarchy and the understanding of substantive equality in Indian Constitutional law Further it highlights key contradictions incoherence and internal tension in the design of the reservations for Economically Weaker Sections Critical comprehensive and cogently argued this book will contribute and shape ongoing constitutional policy and judicial debates It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of law Indian politics affirmative action social policy and public policy

America in the Age of Trump Douglas E. Schoen, Jessica Tarlov, 2017-07-04 America in the Age of Trump is a bracing essential look at the failure of a great nation to meet the needs of its people and the challenges of the age and the resulting collapse of public trust in government as well as a pervasive crisis of national values from broken families to a loss of faith in the American idea itself This crisis of values occurs just as the country faces an unprecedented array of fiscal economic social and national security challenges out of control federal spending frighteningly large deficits massive gaps of income and opportunity cultural division and a dangerous world in which American power seems increasingly incidental In America in the Age of Trump Douglas E Schoen and Jessica Tarlov offer a definitive and unique assessment of a nation in turmoil looking beneath well known problems to identify underlying yet poorly understood causes Readers will confront the crises one by one of trust values and governance of education economic opportunity and fiscal solvency of national security domestic tranquility and race relations America in the Age of Trump gathers in one place a clear and comprehensive evaluation of the fundamental issues confronting the American future while offering bold fresh approaches to meeting these challenges Other books have described the specter of American decline but none has been so comprehensive in its diagnosis or forward looking and non ideological in its remedies explaining how we might yet overcome national self doubt to reclaim our traditional optimism reassert our place in the world and secure a prosperous future for our citizens

Making Education Work for the Poor William Elliott, Melinda Lewis, 2018-07-03 Making Education Work for the Poor identifies wealth inequality as the gravest threat to the American education system Today wealth rather than individuals effort and ability determines educational outcomes This book calls for universal Opportunity Investment Accounts to be the cornerstone of the wealth building agenda the nation needs to salvage the American Dream

The Governance of Credit Rating Agencies Andrea Miglione, The global crisis revealed that credit rating agencies CRAs are capable of bringing about potential distortions in the financial sector thereby resulting in a reduction in market confidence which in turn influences negotiations and expectations CRAs need to be held accountable for lack of transparency and inaccurate ratings however the existing regulatory framework does not secure adequate investor protection This book provides a new and important contribution to research in the area at a crucial time in the debate around financial regulation and investment regimes The Farmer's Weekly ,1924 Harvard Law Review ,2013 Treaties in Force ,1985 Books in Print Supplement ,1984 The New York Times Index ,2009 Current Law Index ,2000 Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112119597703 and Others ,2013 Space Communications: Information processing and advanced techniques Louise C.
