Financing Higher Education Worldwide D. Bruce Johnstone,Pamela N. Marcucci,2010-06-07 Examines the universal phenomenon of cost sharing in higher education where financial responsibility shifts from governments and taxpayers to students and families Growing costs for education far outpace public revenue streams that once supported it Even with financial aid and scholarships defraying some of these costs students are responsible for a greater share of the cost of higher education Shows how economically diverse countries all face similar cost sharing challenges While cost sharing is both politically and ideologically debated it is imperative to implement it for the financial health of colleges and universities From publisher description Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,1998 Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle,2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention Draft White Paper on Higher Education South Africa,1997 South Africa Yearbook ,2009 British Education Index ,2003 OECD Reviews of Innovation Policy OECD Reviews of Innovation Policy: South Africa 2007 Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2007-09-24 This is one of a series of publications which assess the innovation system of individual OECD member and non member countries focusing on the role of government They set out recommendations on how to improve policies which impact on innovation performance including research and development policies and identify good practices from which other countries can learn This review assesses the governance of South Africa s innovation system and suggests the reforms needed to ensure that additional public investment in R D will yield the expected economic and social benefits
