Unit 7
Cluster 1
“The Jewels of the Shrine”

1. The play is illustrated with a number of pieces of artwork. Which artwork title best describes the main plot line of the play?

- A. “The Return of the Drummers”
- B. “Hidden Agenda”
- C. “Baba Cheap Cheap”
- D. “Hidden Treasure”

LA.910.1.7.3

The correct answer is B.

Options A, C, and D are incorrect because they represent interpretations of the main idea.

Option A is incorrect because this artwork title does not convey the plot of the story. Although the painting is by Jimoh Buraimoh, a Nigerian artist, and reflects the colors and materials (beads) of the country, it does not relate to the plot of the story but to a detail in the play. As the reader learns in the Cultural Background section on page 665, “In traditional Nigerian culture, drumming and dancing play an important role in life events.” As the reader also learns on page 664, Arob “...called the drummers and the dancers,” to appear at the Grandfather’s funeral. The bead painting entitled “The Return of the Drummers” is found on page 641. Option B is correct because this artwork title refers to the secret motive behind the actions of the Grandfather. He knew that his grandsons were hiding under the bed to learn what their Grandfather was up to. He, on the other hand, kept his intentions and actions hidden from them. The symbolism continued to the hidden small box containing the old man’s will and the secret, or hidden, relationship between the Grandfather and the Stranger as well as the secret sale of the house. The idiom hidden agenda is defined by idioms.thefreedictionary.com as a secret plan; a concealed plan; a plan disguised as a plan with another purpose. The bead painting entitled “Hidden Agenda” also by Nigerian artist by Jimoh Buraimoh is found on page 649. Option C is incorrect because this artwork title does not convey the plot of the story. Although the grandsons acted in a cheap manner and did not spend any money for the care of their grandfather until they thought that he might be rich, the use of the word cheap in the painting’s title does not convey the plot of the story. Cheap is defined at dictionary.reference.com as stingy; miserly. The oil painting entitled “Baba Cheap Cheap” is found on page 652. Option D is incorrect because this artwork title does not convey the plot of the story. Although the Grandfather lets his grandsons overhear that he has become aware of his ownership of the Jewels of the Shrine, this hidden treasure is a detail in the play. The acrylic painting “Hidden Treasure” is found on page 661.

2. Why did the author write this play?

- F. to illustrate the fact that today young people move from the country to the city seeking an easier life for themselves
- G. to entertain the reader with a story about how a hidden treasure gave peace to an old man
