This summer you will delve into the world of biology like you never thought you would in those hot months! We will explore topics to whet your appetite for the coming year of hard work.

This summer assignment has been designed for several purposes:

- ☒ To get you to think during those summer months to keep your mind sharp, because we will expect a lot out of it come August!
- ☒ To expand your vocabulary by familiarizing you with terms that we will be using in class.
- ☒ To introduce you to major concepts from AP Biology through non-classroom methods of learning.
- ☒ To get you out of your house and neighborhood to enjoy nature.

ASSIGNMENT (posted on AP Biology Canvas and AP Biology Summer Google Classroom).

1. Ecology Scavenger Hunt – you must share your work on your IUSD Google Drive account with me by midnight August 18th (day before school begins) using our AP Biology Summer Google Classroom Code [dud6ge7]. Questions? Email Mr Knight or Mr Shrake

Mr Knight davidknight@iUSD.org and Mr Shrake tomschrake@iUSD.org

Find and take a “selfie” with each item. Write a 4-5 sentence description to go with the selfie that includes a definition of the term represented by your image, but is not solely a definition. Explain how your image represents the term or concept. Image must actually show term, not just the possibility of the term. Create a Google doc or Google slide, doc., or a ppt. with the images and descriptions. You need to be in the shot—if you cannot be in the photo due to the angle, put your UNI ID in the frame. No taking images off the internet! Each photo can only count for one item on the list but you have choices (see example).

OPTION A: TAKE A SELFIE – YOU IN AN ECOSYSTEM AND SCAVENGER HUNT.

Ecosystem. Description should include: type of ecosystem; type of biome the ecosystem is part of; location of ecosystem; 3 abiotic factors and 3 biotic factors of this ecosystem. Any interesting or relevant facts about the picture or location. This should be one or two paragraphs.

AND

Selfies. Choose any 50 items from the list, remember each object (selfie) can count only for one item on the list! You cannot use items from your ecosystem as any of the 50 items! Give number and term for each photo.

OPTION B: SELFIE SCAVENGER HUNT ONLY.

Take a selfie and write appropriate description for 50 of the items on the list below. Remember, each object (selfie) can count only for one item on the list! Give number and term for each photo.

Best Practices of Literacy Leaders Allison Swan Dagen, Rita M. Bean, 2020-02-05 This authoritative text and practitioner resource has now been extensively revised and expanded with 70% new material covering new topics and standards in literacy leadership. Prominent experts present research-based methods for improving instruction, assessment, and professional learning experiences in PreK-12. The distinct roles of teachers, reading literacy specialists, literacy coaches, special educators, and principals are explored with an emphasis on fostering a culture of collaboration. Chapters highlight the standards that apply to each component of a schoolwide literacy program, give examples of what they look like in schools, and share implications for classroom practice and professional learning. Pedagogical features include guiding questions, case examples, vignettes, engagement activities, and annotated resources for further learning. New to This Edition: Now copublished with the International Literacy Association (ILA) and grounded in ILA's updated Standards 2017, expanded grade range includes PreK. Chapters on new topics: writing instruction, sustaining schoolwide improvements, and collaborative leadership. New chapters on core topics: the principal's role, assessment, middle and high school literacy programs, special education, and culturally responsive instruction. Vignettes from leaders in diverse roles. Think About This: questions for discussion, reflection, and end of chapter annotated resources. Interplay of Creativity and Giftedness in Science Melissa K. Demetrikopoulos, John L.

Pecore, 2015-12-17 This book explores education for juvenile offenders in relation to Passages Academy, which is both similar to and representative of many school programs in juvenile correctional facilities. Examining the mission and population of this school contributes to an understanding of the ways in which the teachers think about and ultimately act with respect to their detained juvenile students and particularly illustrates how the tension between punishment and rehabilitation is played out in school policies and design. By calling attention to the decisions that surround juvenile detention education, the extant research concentrates on three main areas: first, the social, political, and pedagogical forces that determine who enters the juvenile justice systems; second, how these court-involved youths are educated while they are in the system; and third, the practical problems and the social justice issues youths encountered when transitioning back to their community schools. I Hope I Don't See You Tomorrow is both heartwarming and heartbreaking; its vast empathy for the students that L. A. Gabay teaches is edifying, while its unsparing examination of the forces that push youth into detention is soul-sharing. Gabay is at once Tocqueville and Kozol; he brilliantly guides us through the educational territory that is foreign to most of us, even as he paints a searing portrait of teachers who shape lesson plans for students who must learn under impossible conditions. Gabay's haunting and eloquent missive from the front lines of pain and possibility couldn't be more timely as the nation's first Black president seeks to lessen the stigma of nonviolent ex-offenders in our society. Gabay's book confronts the criminal justice system at its institutional roots in the economic misery and racial strife of schooling that compounds the suffering of poor youth as they are contained by a state that often only pays attention to them when they are in trouble. Gabay opens eyes and vexes minds with this stirring and sober account of what it means to teach those whom society has deemed utterly expendable Michael Eric Dyson author of The Black Presidency Barack Obama and the Politics of Race in America As a beneficiary of Lee Gabay and his colleague s patience discipline and compassionate teaching at the school this timely book beautifully decrypts the pedagogical framework within the juvenile justice system As America comes to term with its zeal for incarceration policymakers educators government officials parents and advocates should take advantage of this carefully written book and use it as reflection and pause as we prepare our young court involved students towards adulthood Jim St Germain Advisory counsel on President Obama s Taskforce on Police Community Relations and Mayor Bloomberg s Close to Home initiative      Winds of Change ,2016      Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12
